RODEO ACTIVITIES

Rodeo Timed Events (Team Roping) (1:0:3): A recreational class involving the fundamentals and skills involved in team roping. The basic methods and techniques of the events are discussed and the students are given knowledge of the handling and care of the equipment used.

1. Purpose: To meet physical education requirements for an Associate in Science degree as well as one requirement for transfer students working toward a Bachelor's degree.

Course Objectives: To acquaint the student with the key aspects and facets of team roping, to give the student experience in the proper use and care of the roping horse and roping cattle, as well as providing as much practice as possible in the roping of steers. In addition, the student is familiarized with the rules and regulations of the National Intercollegiate Rodeo Association, and part of the College Rodeo Team is picked from the class.

II. General Course Information:

- A. Text: National Intercollegiate Rodeo Association By-Laws and Rules
- B. Reference: Professional Rodeo Cowboys Association By-Laws and Rules
- C. Attendance Policy: Regular class attendance is required of all students. A student is allowed three (3) absences. After the fourth absence your grade will be dropped one letter grade per absence. An illness, with a Doctor's excuse provided, the day of the absence, will be counted as excused. After three absences a student will be required to do various tasks delegated by the instructor.
- D. Evaluating Policy: Rodeo Activities 1147-2147 are one credit hour college level courses, which includes three hours of supervised practice per week. Evaluation is based on attendance, participation, attitude, capability and total progress. In addition, grading includes periodic exercises relative to NIRA rules and rodeo events.
- E. Grading Policy: The following scale will be used for grading:

90-100	A
80-89	B
70-79	C
60-69	D
0-59	F

- F. Assignment Policy: Assignments and references relative to rodeo event and

Arena rules and national intercollegiate eligibility and rodeo entry dates are given to the student. It is the responsibility of the student to comply with the rules and to be familiar with all rodeo requirements.

ADA Statement:

Levelland Campus -

Students with disabilities, including but not limited to physical, psychiatric, or learning disabilities, who wish to request accommodations in this class should notify the Disability Services Office early in the semester so that the appropriate arrangements may be made. In accordance with federal law, a student requesting accommodations must provide acceptable documentation of his/her disability. 4.1.1.1 Diversity Statement: In this class, the teacher will establish and support an environment that values and nurtures individual and group differences and encourages engagement and interaction. Understanding and respecting multiple experiences and perspectives will serve to challenge and stimulate all of us to learn about others, about the larger world and about ourselves. By promoting diversity and intellectual exchange, we will not only mirror society as it is, but also model society as it should and can be.
