Classroom Policies:

- Respect for Fellow Students: All students will maintain respect for fellow classmates' personal beliefs, values, morals and life situations. Insensitivity concerning race, religion, sex/gender, sexual orientation, mental/physical disability, psychological disorders, age, or socio-economic status (family situation) will not be tolerated.
- Electronic Devices: The use of cell phones is not permitted in the classroom; they should be silenced and put away while in the classroom. Devices used for note-taking are permitted, but should be used responsibly and should not create distractions for you or others.
- Tardiness: Please do your best to manage your time well and be on time to class. If you are tardy, please enter the room quietly and take a seat as close to the door as you can get. Being late to class is disruptive to your fellow classmates. I will give a quiz at the beginning of class and you will miss it if you are late or absent. These cannot be made up.
- Disruptive Behavior: "Failure to comply with lawful directions of a classroom teacher relative to maintaining good order is considered misconduct on the part of the student. Repeated violations of disrupting a class will result in the student being dropped from the course." (See Student Guide)
- Attendance & Administrative Drop Policy: Attendance will be taken during each class meeting. Students will be responsible for material presented and discussed in class. Due to South Plains College attendance policies, any student who fails to attend 5 classes during the semester or fails to complete two major grades may be dropped from the course with an 'X' or 'F.'
The last day to drop is 11/15/2018.

Late Work and Missed Work: The work is due on the dates assigned and will have late penalties if that date is missed. You cannot wait till the end of the semester to do the work.

Text Book: You will use Open Stax

Academic Integrity: You are expected to do your own work. You may not work with another person to complete your assignments, discussions, or when taking your exams. You may not copy another student's work and present it as your own. You may not allow another student to copy your work.

Complete honesty is required of the student in the presentation of any and all phases of course work. If the instructor determines an assignment to be plagiarized, the result can range from a zero for that assignment to failure of the course. The result will be determined by the instructor. See SPC College Catalog for additional information.

Equal Opportunity: South Plains College strives to accommodate the individual needs of all students in order to enhance their opportunities for success in the context of a comprehensive community college setting. It is the policy of South Plains College to offer all educational and employment opportunities without regard to race, color, national origin, religion, gender, disability or age. In short, “Bigotry will not be tolerated.” (Student Guide)

ADA Statement

Students with disabilities, including but not limited to physical, psychiatric, or learning disabilities, who wish to request accommodations in this class should notify the Disability Services Office early in the semester so that the appropriate arrangements may be made. In accordance with federal law, a student requesting accommodations must provide acceptable documentation of his/her disability to the Disability Services Office. For more information, call or visit the Disability Services Office through the Guidance and Counseling Centers at Reese Center (Building 8) 716-4606, or Levelland 716-2577.

Grading Policy and Method of Evaluation: It is possible to earn up to 625 points in this course, as follows:

	Possible Points You Can Earn This Semester	Points Earned By You This Semester
Paper/Project and Assessment	125	_____
Exam 1	100	_____
Exam 2	100	_____
Exam 3	100
Exam 4	100
Daily Quizzes	25@5= 125
Totals	650

Final Grades will be determined by calculating the total amount of points earned by you this semester.

Using the scale below, your instructor will determine the corresponding letter grade.

A=90% of 650 which is 585 to 650 total points

B=80% of 650 which is 520 to 584 total points

C=70% of 650 which is 455 to 519 total points

D=60% of 650 which is 390 to 454 total points

F=less than 60%

Project/Paper: This is worth 100 points and will be due by Friday April 12 at 4:00 pm. If it is late it will have 10% deducted per day that it is late. The project will consist of application of a personal example to a concept in the text book. The description is on a separate sheet with a grading rubric that is attached. You can turn the paper in earlier but this is the deadline.

Quizzes: You will have daily reading quizzes at the beginning of class. There will be approximately 25 of these quizzes during the semester. They will be over the reading assigned for that week. They will be worth 5 points each. The end grade would be 25 quizzes worth 5 points each for a total of 125 points. This will also be the way attendance is figured and will be given at the beginning of class. If you are late to class you will miss the quiz and there are no make-up quizzes. These quizzes will also help prepare you for the exam and you might see some of these questions on the exam.
