METHODS OF EVALUATION

All assignments must be completed and turned in at the beginning of the class period identified on this syllabus unless otherwise noted. Major-assignment deadlines are firm. Late work will NOT be accepted. Failure to turn in an assignment on time will result in a grade of 0/F for the assignment. Examinations and projects may not be made up except under the most serious circumstances. The scheduled examination will be an identification exam. More information will be given at a later date. Numerical grades are assigned for convenience in averaging grades only. Hats/Caps will not be worn during exams.

If you fail to turn in two major assignments, you could be dropped from the course with an F.

In addition to the scheduled essays and exams, announced and unannounced quizzes (daily exercises may also count as quizzes) will be given throughout the semester. There will be no make-ups for daily quizzes or writing exercises. A student must be present to receive credit for exercises graded as quizzes.

LITERATURE CIRCLES

The literature circle is an opportunity for students to engage, in-depth, with the readings this semester. Students will receive additional instructions regarding the literature circle requirements and evaluation standards during the semester.

EVALUATION STANDARDS

Essays and writing assignments will be evaluated according to the following criteria: (1) accuracy of content, (2) use of the conventions of standard grammar, (3) use of the appropriate method of development for the assignment, (4) use of the principles of unity and coherence, and (5) use of logical, factual arguments to advance the thesis of the assignment.

Note: In college, a “C” is an average paper; it does not have anything “wrong” with it; it fulfills the assignment; it simply does not move beyond the average.*

ATTENDANCE POLICY

In accordance with college policy, students may be dropped from classes, at the discretion of the professor, due to excessive absences. All absences, excused and unexcused, are included in this count.

After your 4th absence, you could be dropped from the class with an F. This policy is firm. Students are responsible for dropping themselves if they cannot or no longer wish to participate in the course.

Additionally, a student accrues an absence each time he or she accumulates a total of three tardies. A tardy is defined as being between 1-10 minutes late. Whenever possible, students should let the instructor know about expected absences as soon as possible and before the class meeting. If a student is more than 20 minutes late to class, that student will be counted absent. Leaving class excessively or leaving class early will also result in an absence. Please take care of personal business before or after class.

Because this is a student-oriented class, regular attendance is crucial to understanding. With each absence, your participation grade will be impacted. If you must be absent, be sure to check Blackboard and check with another class member for any changes in the syllabus so that you can be prepared for the next class meeting. You will still be responsible for the material you have missed and for the upcoming material for the next class. “I was absent, so I didn’t know that was due,” is not an acceptable excuse.

Finally, reading quizzes and commonplace books may sometimes be used to evaluate attendance. Should you earn less than a 50 on a reading quiz, you could be counted absent for the day at the instructor’s discretion.

STUDENT RESPONSIBILITIES

1. To read the information assigned in the text; if you do not read the material, you will not be able to complete the assignments. In addition, I make the assignments assuming that you have read the material.
2. To show maturity and professionalism in preparation of assignments.
3. To show courteousness to fellow classmates.
4. To initiate consultation with the instructor whenever assistance is needed regarding class assignments.
5. To appropriately cite information obtained from sources.

ADDITIONAL POLICIES AND PROCEDURES

BE PROFESSIONAL. All actions and words should reflect kindness and respect for both the instructor and all other students. I will not tolerate rude, disrespectful, or unprofessional behavior directed at any member of this class. None of these behaviors is conducive to the environment we hope to promote this semester. Communication on all writing assignments and email must be professional.

“Failure to comply with the lawful direction of a classroom teacher relative to maintaining good order is considered misconduct on the part of the student. Repeated violations of disrupting a class will result in the student being dropped from the course” (South Plains College Student Guide 11).

BE PRESENT. Unless otherwise instructed: the use of any electronic devices (cell phones, iPhones, iPods, or any other device) will not be tolerated. Your cell phone needs to be set to silent, not vibrate, and it should be placed out of sight; texting underneath the desk/in your lap is not out of sight. Unless otherwise indicated, students will place cell phones at a desk at the front of the classroom before instruction begins. Any student using a cell phone, iPod, or any other electronic device not previously approved by the instructor will not be dismissed for the day but will be counted absent. I will not interrupt class to notify the student of the absence. (However, I understand that sometimes emergencies occur. If you need to have your cell phone in reach during class for an emergency, please discuss it with me before class begins that day.). Laptops will be allowed only with prior approval.

BE HONEST. Honesty is an important part of integrity. Academic integrity is non-negotiable in a university environment. Students who plagiarize the work of another, whether through outright copying off of the internet or other sources or having another person produce the student’s work and then claiming the work as the student’s own, will receive a 0/F for that particular assignment and could be dropped from the course with an X or F, at the instructor’s discretion. There are no extenuating circumstances for cheating of any kind. My recommendation – for the very first offense – will be for a failing grade for the course at a minimum and, very likely, recommendation for suspension from South Plains College. I have zero tolerance for cheating. If I suspect a student or group of students of cheating, I will drop him/her/all involved without discussion. Please believe me when I say that I have ways of determining whether or not a student has cheated that he/she/they cannot get around.

The SPC General Catalog specifically addresses academic integrity as follows. “It is the aim of the faculty of South Plains College to foster a spirit complete honesty and a high standard of integrity. The attempt of any student to present as his or her own any work which he or she has not honestly performed is regarded by the faculty and administration as a most serious offense and renders the offender liable to serious consequences, possibly suspension” (23). “Complete honesty is required of the student in the presentation of any and all phases of course work. This applies to quizzes of whatever length as well as to final examinations, to daily reports and to term papers” (23). Students must consult the General Catalog for the college’s detailed policies on plagiarism and cheating. Ignorance of the college’s policies and procedures is not a viable defense for plagiarism or cheating.

ANNOUNCEMENTS: Any information sent-out via announcements in emails or posted as an announcement on the course website, or sent via REMIND is important and is, accordingly, an extension of assignment requirements and syllabus policies. Students must read all announcements and will be held responsible for any information posted in the announcements.

FINAL COURSE AVERAGES: The most efficient and effective way to achieve a desirable grade in this course is to “attend” each class and be prepared with all materials and readings and submit all course work in a timely manner. If you do what is required of you, you will be successful. Remember: What you put into this course is what you will get out of it.

EMAIL: I typically check my email twice a day (Monday-Friday at noon), once in the morning and once again in the afternoon. If students have a question, please feel free to email me; however, please allow at least 48 hours for a response. Additionally, I do not check my email Friday evening - Sunday, so any emails sent on those days will be responded to on the following Monday. Students should limit emails to “quick” questions. My office hours or appointments are the best way for us to address more complex questions and concerns about the course. If the answer to your question can be found in the textbook, blackboard, or syllabus, please do not email me as I will only refer you to one of these sources.

Please note: if you use the "Email Instructor" function in BlackBoard, you will find my response in your SPC email not your BlackBoard messages.

EMAIL ETIQUETTE: I expect students to use professional language and tone in all communication with me, including email correspondence. "Sooooooooooooooooo B4 u snd me a msg..... B sure i can read it." Additionally, students should include their first and last name and section number in the "subject" line of the email or in the first line of the email. If the student does not follow these guidelines, I will not respond to his/her email. Students must use proper grammar, spelling, capitalization, and punctuation. Students should never ask that I respond ASAP and should refrain from using ALL CAPS and excessive punctuation!!!!!! in the email. Finally, students should only email me from their SPC email addresses. Emails from Yahoo, Hotmail, etc. are not delivered to my inbox. Students may also send me messages in BlackBoard.

GRADING TIME FRAMES: I grade all work as efficiently and quickly as possible. When your assignments are evaluated, you will have them back; please do not inquire as to whether or not your papers/exams are graded.

STUDENTS WITH DISABILITIES: Students with disabilities, including but not limited to physical, psychiatric, or learning disabilities, who wish to request accommodations in this class should notify the Disability Services Office early in the semester so that the appropriate arrangements may be made. In accordance with federal law, a student requesting accommodations must provide acceptable documentation of his/her disability to the Disability Services Office. For more information, call or visit the Disability Services Office at Levelland Student Health & Wellness Center 806-716-2577, Reese Center (also covers ATC) Building 8: 806-716-4675, Plainview Center Main Office: 806-716-4302 or 806-296-9611, or the Health and Wellness main number at 806-716-2529. Students should present appropriate verification from Student Disability Services during my instructor's office hours. Please note I am not allowed to provide classroom accommodations to a student until appropriate verification from Student Disability Services has been provided.

STATEMENT OF NONDISCRIMINATION: Neither the instructor nor any student in this class will discriminate or tolerate discrimination on the basis of age, color, disability, ethnicity, gender, national origin, race, religion, sexual orientation, or veteran status. This policy extends to in-class discussions, student essays, and all other forms of communication associated with this course, to include informal conversations within the classroom but outside the parameters of this course.

STATEMENT OF DIVERSITY: By its very design, this course engages texts that some students might find difficult and/or controversial. In this class, the instructor will establish and support an environment that values and nurtures individual and group differences and encourages engagement and interaction. Understanding and respecting multiple experiences and perspectives will serve to challenge and stimulate all of us to learn about others, about the larger world, and about ourselves. By promoting diversity and intellectual exchange, we will not only mirror society as it is, but also model society as it should and can be.

This being said, the course is designed for the critical reading and writing to be completed on the appropriate due date as outlined in the schedule.
