Communication

The best way to contact me is via email at kejackson@southplainscollege.edu. During office hours, you may also call me in the office. I will respond to emails as quickly as possible during regular business hours (M-F, 8-5). In the evenings and on the weekends, please allow up to 48 hours for a response. As I make every effort to be current and prompt with my email, I ask that you do the same. You should check your official SPC email at least once per day. I will send all course communications and important messages through SPC email. To protect your privacy as a student, I ask that all emails originate from your official SPC email address. I cannot guarantee that emails from a third-party account (Gmail, Yahoo, Hotmail, etc.) will be read or responded to. You can find instructions to access your SPC email account below.

In all correspondence with me (and I recommend with all your instructors), you should communicate at the level of a college student. E-mails should include your course number, a subject line, salutation, and closing. E-mails with attachments should also follow these guidelines. You should write in complete sentences. This is a habit that will serve you well in college—it is best to start practicing now.

SPC Student Email Account: If you haven't already, you must go ahead and activate your SPC student email account.

- Your SPC Email address is: yourSPCusername@southplainscollege.edu
- Your student email password is the same as your Blackboard password. If you need help, call the SPC Help Desk at 806-716-2600.

- To access your SPC email account, log in to MySPC and click the Unread Messages: South Plains College O365 link at the bottom of the page.
- You can also set up access to your SPC email account through mobile phone mail apps, such as default smartphone Mail app or the Outlook app.
- Check with the SPC Help Desk for assistance: 806-716-2600.

Attendance

This is an online, asynchronous course. While you will largely plan your assignments & coursework within your own schedule and work independently at your own pace, it is imperative that you stay current and up-to-date with any course, but especially an 8-week course.

You should log in and check Blackboard often, and you should check your SPC email daily. Failure to log in to Blackboard for a week or more can result in getting dropped from the course with an F.

COVID Protocol

If you or someone in your household is exposed to or contracts the virus, you should first email our Health Coordinator, DeEtte Edens (dedens@southplainscollege.edu). In addition, you should email me and let me know how you plan to manage the course during your quarantine or illness. If you are told to quarantine by a medical professional, do not come to a face-to-face class or office hours. I will make arrangements for this on a case-by-case basis. At any rate, it's important that you keep me updated should this happen so we can make sure you're not falling too far behind.

If you are experiencing personal challenges for any reason this semester, such as a loved one in critical care, the unexpected death of a close relative or friend, or significant mental health decline, I encourage you to reach out to me personally so we can facilitate your academic success alongside any personal struggle. I am here to help you succeed in whatever way I can—do not hesitate to reach out if you need to.

Grading

Grades will be evaluated as follows

|---------------------------------|-----|
| Narrative Essay | 5% |
| Definition Essay | 10% |
| Cause & Effect Essay | 10% |
| Argument Essay | 15% |
| Grammar Quizzes (4) | 10% |
| Peer & Process | 20% |
| Learning Videos | 15% |
| MindTap | 15% |

Major Essays—Final Drafts

You will complete four major essays for this course. Each of these assignments will entail a prewriting process, rough draft, peer review, revision, and final draft. Each of these components factor into your grade, but the final draft will account for each assignment's weight in the overall grade breakdown.

Make sure you have reliable access to a computer. If you don't have one at home, plan to use any of the various SPC computer labs before an assignment's deadline.

All assignments should be submitted as a Microsoft Word (.docx) document. I will not accept any other file format. Failure to submit the correct file format will be counted late until the proper file type is submitted. This is a firm guideline. I cannot stress this enough—do not, for any reason whatsoever, assume that I will accept a PDF, Google Doc, or other processor file. Turn in a Microsoft Word file or your grade will be affected.

Late Assignment Policy for Final Drafts:

If you submit after the deadline without prior approval for an extension from me, 20% is automatically deducted from your grade. If your assignment is more than one week late, 50% will be deducted. In the event of technical difficulties that prevent you from online submission, email me ASAP (yes, even at 11:58 p.m.) to let me know and attach the assignment. This will ensure your assignment is counted on-time. I will not, however, grade emailed assignments. You're expected to upload the final draft appropriately after technical issues are resolved.

All major writing assignments must be completed in order to pass the course.

Grading Procedure:

Essay grades are returned within two weeks; on average, you can expect them within ten days. I will provide feedback via Microsoft Word comments, and I will return a PDF of my feedback for your convenience. I spend a considerable amount of time on each essay, and I provide the most thorough feedback that I can. I encourage you to read every piece of grading feedback you receive. It is fundamentally not possible for your writing to evolve if you're not listening and adapting to the feedback you are given. I also encourage you to meet with me if anything is unclear. If you would like to discuss any assignment grade for any reason, you are welcome to do so. However, I ask that you wait at least 24 hours after the assignment has been returned to you before contacting me.

Essay Assessment Guidelines:

Essays may earn grades ranging from A to F based on the instructor's grading scale. Depending on the assignment, certain criteria may be weighted more than others, and the instructor's assignment may establish additional, more specific criteria. The quality of each of the criteria determines the letter grade.

Peer and Process Score

For each major writing assignment, you will follow the writing process which entails several steps, including but not limited to prewriting, outlining, drafting, peer reviewing, and revising & editing. You will receive a grade for your engagement with each of these steps. This portion of your course average is designed to promote not only good essays, but good practices for your future writing at the college level. Process grades are not a matter of quality, but a matter of effort. If you submit all the required drafting activities in a completed fashion on-time, you will earn a high grade for each of these scores. If you submit incomplete or late elements of your process credit, your score will fall substantially. If you do not participate in these activities or submit drafting elements that are less than 50% complete, you will earn a zero for each instance.

Peer & process scores are the most heavily weighted element of your course average. It does not matter if your talent as a writer is at the unicorn-level of impressive. If you do not participate in these activities, your average will be affected. Just to make it clear how important Peer & Process scores are:

If you earn a 75% on every paper and assignment this semester...

- 90%+ on your P&P score would result in a B overall.
- 75% on your P&P score would result in a C-/D+ overall.
- 50% on your P&P score would be a D- overall.
- 0% on your P&P would be an F overall.

Learning Videos

Each week, you will have interactive videos to watch and complete. This should be your first task for each week, as the content provided will be necessary to complete the week's assignments successfully. Your scores on the interactive questions in each video will constitute 15% of your course average. Learning videos must be watched by 11:59 p.m. on the Friday of the corresponding week for credit. All videos will be provided in non-graded, non-interactive format after the graded versions close for you to use as a studying resource throughout the semester, but the graded interactive versions of these videos will lock on Friday at midnight in the week they are due.

Grammar Quizzes

You will take four quizzes over the semester to test your learning on grammar and sentence skills. These may take place on Blackboard. Quizzes will be timed and limited to a single attempt. No make-up quizzes will be given. There are no exceptions.

MindTap

We will use Cengage MindTap, an online assessment tool, to conduct a portion of your work. This access code is included with your tuition—you do not need to purchase anything else to use MindTap. I will provide instructions for registering MindTap during the first week of class.

MindTap assignments are grouped into weeks and all MindTap assignments will be due the Friday of their corresponding week at 11:59PM. You can find all MindTap assignments and due dates in the MindTap calendar on Blackboard. In addition to your graded MindTap assignments, you will do your course reading through MindTap as well. MindTap scores are averaged together and your cumulative MindTap score is calculated at 15% of your overall course grade. At the end of the semester, I will drop up to ten of the lowest MindTap scores for students who have completed all major essays and peer & process activities for the semester.

I will not reopen a MindTap assignment for any reason after the due date passes—there are no exceptions.

Office Hours Policy

In my experience, students don't take advantage of office hours for a variety of reasons, but I personally encourage you to stop by at any time during the scheduled office hours. These hours are set aside for me to help you! However, in light of the current pandemic, I am taking extra precautions. I cannot have more than one student in my office at a time. If the door is shut, please knock—I will always be around during the scheduled times unless I've notified you otherwise. Students will not be permitted inside my office without a face mask, and I will ask you to use hand sanitizer when you enter (which I will have available for you). If you are feeling unwell in any way, please book an online appointment.

I will also provide office hours digitally via Zoom by appointment through Calendly. This link will be available on Blackboard and you are welcome to book an appointment at any time.

Blackboard

We will also use Blackboard in this course. You may access the Blackboard login page at southplainscollege.blackboard.com.

Do not—under any circumstances—give your username and/or password to anyone else or allow anyone else to log in to your Blackboard account. Doing so will be viewed as academic dishonesty and will be treated as such.

If you need technical support for Blackboard, please contact the Instructional Technology Department at blackboard@southplainscollege.edu. Include your name, student ID, the name of the course you're taking, a description of the problem you are having.

Like all other areas of this course, there are no exceptions to the late work policy, for any reason, including technical difficulties.

Student Code of Conduct

Any successful learning experience requires mutual respect on the part of the student and the instructor. Neither instructor nor student should be subject to others' behavior that is rude, disruptive, intimidating, aggressive, or demeaning. Student conduct which disrupts the learning process or is deemed disrespectful or threatening shall not be tolerated and may lead to disciplinary action and/or removal from class.

Academic Integrity and Plagiarism

It is the aim of the faculty at South Plains College to foster a spirit of complete honesty and a high standard of integrity. The attempt of any student to present as his or her own any work which he or she has not honestly performed is regarded by the faculty and administration as a most serious offense.

Plagiarism violations include, but are not limited to, the following:

1. Turning in a paper that has been purchased, borrowed, or downloaded from another student, an online term paper site, or a mail order term paper mill;
2. Cutting and pasting together information from books, articles, other papers, or online sites without providing proper documentation;
3. Using direct quotations (three or more words) from a source without showing them to be direct quotations and citing them; or
4. Missing in-text citations.

Cheating violations include, but are not limited to, the following:

1. Obtaining an examination by stealing or collusion;
2. Discovering the content of an examination before it is given;
3. Using an unauthorized source of information (notes, textbook, text messaging, internet) during an examination, quiz, or homework assignment;
4. Entering an office or building to obtain unfair advantage;
5. Taking an examination for another;
6. Altering grade records;
7. Copying another's work during an examination or on a homework assignment;
8. Rewriting another student's work in Peer Editing so that the writing is no longer the original student's;
9. Taking pictures of a test, test answers, or someone else's paper.

Do not attempt to submit an assignment for this course that you also submitted to another course without my express approval.

Do not, under any circumstances, turn in another student's work as your own. Do not, under any circumstances, give your work to anyone else to turn in as their own. Both situations are representative of academic dishonesty and will be treated as such.

There is zero tolerance for academic dishonesty in this course. I cannot stress this enough—do not under any circumstances use words you didn't write in an essay without proper documentation. If you're not sure about proper documentation, you must reach out via email or office hours to ensure academic integrity. Plagiarism will automatically result in an F for the assignment and can, in many cases, result in getting dropped from the course with an F.

Mask Policy

It is the policy of South Plains College for the Spring 2021 semester that as a condition of on-campus enrollment, all students are required to engage in safe behaviors to avoid the spread of COVID-19 in the SPC community. Such behaviors specifically include the requirement that all students properly wear CDC-compliant face coverings while in SPC buildings including in classrooms, labs, hallways, and restrooms. Failure to comply with this policy may result in dismissal from the current class session. If the student refuses to leave the classroom or lab after being dismissed, the student may be referred to the Dean of Students on the Levelland campus or the Dean/Director of external centers for Student Code of Conduct Violation. Students who believe they have been exposed or may be COVID-19 positive, must contact Health Services, DeEtte Edens, BSN, RN at (806) 716-2376 or dedens@southplainscollege.edu.
