Communication

The best way to contact me is via email at kejackson@southplainscollege.edu. During office hours, you may also call me in the office. I will respond to emails as quickly as possible during regular business hours (M-F, 8-5). In the evenings and on the weekends, please allow up to 48 hours for a response. As I make every effort to be current and prompt with my email, I ask that you do the same. You should check your official SPC email at least once per day. I will send all course communications and important messages through SPC email. To protect your privacy as a student, I ask that all emails originate from your official SPC email address. I cannot guarantee that emails from a third-party account (Gmail, Yahoo, Hotmail, etc.) will be read or responded to. You can find instructions to access your SPC email account below.

In all correspondence with me (and I recommend with all your instructors), you should communicate at the level of a college student. E-mails should include your course number, a subject line, salutation, and closing. E-mails with attachments should also follow these guidelines. You should write in complete sentences. This is a habit that will serve you well in college—it is best to start practicing now.

SPC Student Email Account: If you haven't already, you must go ahead and activate your SPC student email account.

- Your SPC Email address is: yourSPCusername@southplainscollege.edu
- Your student email password is the same as your Blackboard password. If you need help, call the SPC Help Desk at 806-716-2600.
- To access your SPC email account, log in to MySPC and click the Unread Messages: South Plains College O365 link at the bottom of the page.

Attendance

This is an online, asynchronous course. While you will largely plan your assignments & coursework within your own schedule and work independently at your own pace, it is imperative that you stay current and up-to-date with any course, but especially an 8-week course.

You should log in and check Blackboard often, and you should check your SPC email daily. Failure to log in to Blackboard for a week or more can result in getting dropped from the course with an F.

COVID Protocol

As we continue to find ourselves in a pandemic situation, I urge each of you to take every precaution possible to protect yourselves from contributing to the spread of the virus. However, SPC has instructed all faculty to ensure students who may need to quarantine are accommodated and will be able to stay caught up with their coursework. In the event that you need to quarantine due to exposure or a positive COVID test, you must contact DeEtte Edens (information below) to receive accommodations. While synchronous virtual attendance is not an option, I will record class materials for students with documented quarantine from the Health & Wellness department and provide them to you.

If you are experiencing any of the following symptoms, please do not attend class and either seek medical attention or get tested for COVID-19.

- Cough, shortness of breath, difficulty breathing
- Fever or chills
- Muscles or body aches
- Vomiting or diarrhea

Please also notify DeEtte Edens, BSN, RN, Associate Director of Health & Wellness, at dedens@southplainscollege.edu or 806-716-2376.

Grading

Grades will be evaluated as follows

Narrative Essay	10%
Definition Essay	10%
Cause &amp; Effect Essay	10%
Argument Essay	15%
Grammar Quizzes (4)	10%
Peer &amp; Process	20%
Learning Videos	10%
Connect &amp; Homework	10%
Final Self Reflection	5%

Major Essays—Final Drafts

You will complete four major essays for this course. Each of these assignments will entail a prewriting process, rough draft, peer review, revision, and final draft. Each of these components factor into your grade, but the final draft will account for each assignment's weight in the overall grade breakdown.

Make sure you have reliable access to a computer. If you don't have one at home, plan to use any of the various SPC computer labs before an assignment's deadline.

All assignments should be submitted as a Microsoft Word (.docx) document. I will not accept any other file format. Failure to submit the correct file format will be counted late until the proper file type is submitted. This is a firm guideline. I cannot stress this enough—

do not, for any reason whatsoever, assume that I will accept a PDF, Google Doc, or other processor file. Turn in a Microsoft Word file or your grade will be affected.

Late Assignment Policy:

If you submit after the deadline without prior approval for an extension from me, 20% is automatically deducted from your grade. If your assignment is more than one week late, 50% will be deducted. In the event of technical difficulties that prevent you from online submission, email me ASAP (yes, even at 11:58 p.m.) to let me know and attach the assignment. This will ensure your assignment is counted on-time. I will not, however, grade emailed assignments. You're expected to upload the final draft appropriately after technical issues are resolved.

All major writing assignments must be completed in order to pass the course. Please note that this late policy applies only to writing assignments. Late work for all other course activities is not accepted.

Grading Procedure:

Essay grades are returned within two weeks; on average, you can expect them within ten days. I will provide feedback via Microsoft Word comments, and I will return a PDF of my feedback for your convenience. I spend a considerable amount of time on each essay, and I provide the most thorough feedback that I can. I encourage you to read every piece of grading feedback you receive. It is fundamentally not possible for your writing to evolve if you're not listening and adapting to the feedback you are given. I also encourage you to meet with me if anything is unclear. If you would like to discuss any assignment grade for any reason, you are welcome to do so. However, I ask that you wait at least 24 hours after the assignment has been returned to you before contacting me.

Essay Assessment Guidelines:

Essays may earn grades ranging from A to F based on the instructor's grading scale. Depending on the assignment, certain criteria may be weighted more than others, and the instructor's assignment may establish additional, more specific criteria. The quality of each of the criteria determines the letter grade.

Peer and Process Score

For each major writing assignment, you will follow the writing process which entails several steps, including but not limited to prewriting, outlining, drafting, peer reviewing, and revising & editing. You will receive a grade for your engagement with each of these steps. This portion of your course average is designed to promote not only good essays, but good practices for your future writing at the college level. Process grades are not a matter of quality, but a matter of effort. If you submit all the required drafting activities in a completed fashion on-time, you will earn a high grade for each of these scores. If you submit incomplete or late elements of your process credit, your score will fall substantially. If you do not participate in these activities or submit drafting elements that are less than 50% complete, you will earn a zero for each instance.

Peer & process scores are the most heavily weighted element of your course average. It does not matter if your talent as a writer is at the unicorn-level of impressive. If you do not participate in these activities, your average will be affected. Just to make it clear how important Peer & Process scores are:

If you earn a 75% on every paper and assignment this semester...

- 90%+ on your P&P score would result in a B overall.
- 75% on your P&P score would result in a C-/D+ overall.
- 50% on your P&P score would be a D- overall.
- 0% on your P&P would be an F overall.

Grammar Quizzes

You will take four quizzes over the semester to test your learning on grammar and sentence skills. These may take place on Blackboard during class or as timed assessments outside of class. Quizzes will be timed and limited to a single attempt. No make-up quizzes will be given. There are no exceptions.

We will do an interactive live review prior to every quiz. During this live review, there will be opportunities to earn dropped Daily Work scores or even, in certain contexts, to be exempted from the quiz. You are responsible for ensuring you're connected to the live review when it happens. If you're not confident in your device or connection, you should come to class in person and use the lab our class is in.

Connect

We will use McGraw-Hill Connect, an online assessment tool, to conduct a portion of your work. This access code is included with your tuition—you do not need to purchase anything else to use Connect. I will provide instructions for registering Connect during the first week of class.

Each week of coursework will have one Connect assessment due over the textbook material for the week. These assessments are due by Friday at 11:59 p.m. The average of these Connect assessment scores will constitute 10% of your overall course grade.

I will not reopen a Connect assignment for any reason after the due date passes—there are no exceptions.

Final Self Reflection

The final exam for this course is your Final Self Reflection. Instructions will be provided through Blackboard. Final Self Reflections are due during the final exam period.

Blackboard

We will also use Blackboard in this course. You may access the Blackboard login page at southplainscollege.blackboard.com.

Do not—under any circumstances—give your username and/or password to anyone else or allow anyone else to log in to your Blackboard account. Doing so will be viewed as academic dishonesty and will be treated as such.

If you need technical support for Blackboard, please contact the Instructional Technology Department at blackboard@southplainscollege.edu. Include your name, student ID, the name of the course you're taking, a description of the problem you are having.

Like all other areas of this course, there are no exceptions to the late work policy, for any reason, including technical difficulties.

Student Code of Conduct

Any successful learning experience requires mutual respect on the part of the student and the instructor. Neither instructor nor student should be subject to others' behavior that is rude, disruptive, intimidating, aggressive, or demeaning. Student conduct which disrupts the learning process or is deemed disrespectful or threatening shall not be tolerated and may lead to disciplinary action and/or removal from class.

Academic Integrity and Plagiarism

It is the aim of the faculty at South Plains College to foster a spirit of complete honesty and a high standard of integrity. The attempt of any student to present as his or her own any work which he or she has not honestly performed is regarded by the faculty and administration as a most serious offense.

Plagiarism violations include, but are not limited to, the following:

1. Turning in a paper that has been purchased, borrowed, or downloaded from another student, an online term paper site, or a mail order term paper mill;
2. Cutting and pasting together information from books, articles, other papers, or online sites without providing proper documentation;
3. Using direct quotations (three or more words) from a source without showing them to be direct quotations and citing them; or
4. Missing in-text citations.

Cheating violations include, but are not limited to, the following:

1. Obtaining an examination by stealing or collusion;
2. Discovering the content of an examination before it is given;
3. Using an unauthorized source of information (notes, textbook, text messaging, internet) during an examination, quiz, or homework assignment;
4. Entering an office or building to obtain unfair advantage;
5. Taking an examination for another;
6. Altering grade records;
7. Copying another's work during an examination or on a homework assignment;
8. Rewriting another student's work in Peer Editing so that the writing is no longer the original student's;
9. Taking pictures of a test, test answers, or someone else's paper.

Do not attempt to submit an assignment for this course that you also submitted to another course without my express approval.

Do not, under any circumstances, turn in another student's work as your own. Do not, under any circumstances, give your work to anyone else to turn in as their own. Both situations are representative of academic dishonesty and will be treated as such.

There is zero tolerance for academic dishonesty in this course. I cannot stress this enough—do not under any circumstances use words you didn't write in an essay without proper documentation. If you're not sure about proper documentation, you must reach out via email or office hours to ensure academic integrity. Plagiarism will automatically result in an F for the assignment and can, in many cases, result in getting dropped from the course with an F.
