Course Description

This is a course in fundamental English for students whose TSIA Writing Test score qualifies them. ENGL 0301 is designed to help students begin to develop college-writing skills and focuses on idea generation, organization, drafting, revision, and utilization of Standard American English. The course provides a fundamental review of English grammar, focusing on spelling, punctuation, correct word choice, and various types of sentence construction, and covers major errors, such as fragments, fused sentences, comma splices, subject-verb agreement, and pronoun errors. It also provides practice in writing and revising various types of paragraphs. This course will not satisfy graduation requirements.

Core Curriculum Objectives

This course will address the following core curriculum competencies:

- Communications skills—to include effective written, oral and visual communication
- Critical thinking skills—to include creative thinking, innovation, inquiry, and analysis, evaluation and synthesis of information
- Teamwork—to include the ability to consider different points of view and to work effectively with others to support a shared purpose or goal
- Personal Responsibility—to include the ability to connect choices, actions, and consequences to ethical decision-making.

Student Learning Outcomes:

Upon the successful completion of this course, students will:

1. Compose a variety of paragraph-length texts that demonstrate clear focus, the logical development of ideas, and the use of appropriate language that advances the writer's purpose.
2. Determine and use practical approaches and rhetorical strategies for given writing situations.

3. Generate ideas and gather information relevant to the topic and purpose, incorporating the thoughts and words of other writers in student writing using established strategies.
4. Evaluate the relevance and quality of ideas and information to formulate and develop a claim.
5. Develop and use effective revision strategies to strengthen the writer's ability to compose college-level writing assignments.
6. Edit writing to conform to the conventions of Standard American English.

Supplies:

- Three-ring binder to keep class notes, PowerPoint printouts, and essay materials.

Grading Policy: A final letter grade will be assigned based on this grading scale: A (90-100), B (80-89), C (70-79), D (60-69), F (59 and below). Final grades will be assigned based on the following percentages:

Essay Assignments
Major Paragraphs	30%
Paragraph Work	15%
Grammar Assignments	15%
Journals	15%
Daily Work	15%
Final Exam	5%
Attendance	5%
Total	100%

OPTIONAL EXTRA CREDIT: Earn extra points by completing extra-credit assignments.

It is up to you to monitor your average and course progress. If at any time you feel that you need to discuss your course progress with me, it is your responsibility to contact me to meet. You can find your current average via the 'My Grades' link in Blackboard.

Student Responsibilities: Students are expected to [May vary by instructor but usually include the following.]

1. Be on time and regularly attend class
2. Be responsible for the learning process, including preparation for class, such as reading and homework; participation in class discussions, including asking relevant questions; getting assignments and/or notes if absent; and accepting responsibility for not understanding an assignment or failing an assignment
3. Be responsible for having an appropriate attitude and using appropriate language in academic environments; not use condescending, inflammatory, threatening, or profane rhetoric, whether verbally or in written form, in academic environments
4. Have respectful behavior toward instructor and classmates in order to contribute to the atmosphere necessary for learning
5. Be responsible for courteous actions to others, especially by putting away cell phones and other distractions while in class
6. Be responsible for writing down all grades and applying them to the grading scale used for the class, which is shown in the course's policy statement/syllabus
7. Submit all assignments in accordance with due dates, formats, and requirements
8. Avoid all forms of cheating and plagiarism on all assignments, including improper collaboration
9. Ask questions when something is unclear.

Assignment Deadlines:

- The weekly assignment deadlines are Wednesday and Sunday by 12:00 AM \(Midnight\).
- The course is organized into sixteen weeks. Each week has its own folder on the Course Content page in our Blackboard course.
- A weekly planner and assignment checklist is provided for each week.

In-class Paragraph Writing/Revisions: All paragraphs are created and typed/handwritten during class time and in the classroom. Class periods are provided for writing/revising one paragraph, with guided instruction and feedback from me on each step. Due dates can be found on the course calendar, and specific assignment details can be found in the weekly folders in Blackboard. Paragraphs and paragraph work accounts for 45% of your grade so completion of these assignment is vital to your course success. I reserve the right to require a student to rewrite a paper if I suspect that cheating or plagiarism has occurred.

Grammar Assignments: Throughout the semester, you will be required to complete several online grammar exercises. Availability and due dates are available on the course calendar. In addition to covering the content presented in the assigned chapters, the exercises will help you review your grammar and help you think about the writing process. When averaged together, these assignments are worth 15% of your final grade.

Journals: You will be required to complete journal entries during class time in Blackboard over an array of topics. These assignments are helpful in honing your writing skills and creativity. Entries will be graded on participation, interest, and length rather than grammar. When averaged together with daily work, these assignments are worth 15% of your final grade, so the completion of these fun assignments can really benefit your overall average.

Daily Grades:

The daily assignments are designed for in-class participation activities to give students the opportunity to interact and engage on course topics and are worth 15% of your final grade.

Assignment Submissions: I cannot accept any assignment via e-mail, for any reason. All files must be submitted via the assignment tool in the Blackboard modules.

Style: We will use the MLA formatting and documentation in this course. Specific rules regarding this particular style guide can be found in Blackboard. All documents you submit should be formatted using MLA standards, and all citations you write, whether in-text or on a References page, should follow MLA guidelines for citation.

Post Course Exam: A final exam will be given at the end of the course. Students will be exempt from this final if they meet the guidelines outlined here.

1. Students who have 2 or fewer absences with a grade of an "A" or "B" the week before final exams, will be EXEMPT from taking it.
2. Students with a grade lower than "B" or 3+ absences will be required to take the final exam.

Reading Assignments and Lectures: Mandatory, assigned reading is required for this course; you may also be required to watch recorded video lectures. Reading and video lecture assignments can be found on the course calendar in Blackboard.

Announcements: Any information sent-out via announcements in e-mails or posted as an announcement on the course website is essential and is, accordingly, an extension of assignment requirements and syllabus policies. Students must read all announcements and will be held responsible for any information posted in the announcements.

Attendance Policy: To be successful in this course, you must attend consistently and punctually and participate fully. Therefore, attendance will be 5% of your course grade.

- Students who are extremely late, absent, or leave early will receive 0 participation points for that day. Additionally, students who are unable to participate in discussion when called upon will receive 0 participation points for that day.
- Students who accumulate four absences and are not passing the class with a 60 or higher may be dropped from the class. Two tardies will equal one absence. Leaving class early will count as a tardy.
- Be advised – I will accept late work for a week past the due date, but there will be a deduction associated with all late assignments. If you are absent, you must complete the assigned work by the indicated due date to receive full credit. Please note that the Peer Editing are group activity assignments that will not be accepted late.
- Please notify me when you are going to be out of town for a school-sponsored event. I will work with you to avoid missing any deadlines.

Dropping our class: Before you withdraw from our class, please contact me or talk to your advisor. There may be a way for you to get back on track.

- Check the SPC Academic Calendar here to find out the last day to drop a course for this semester: <http://www.southplainscollege.edu/academiccalendar/index.php>
- To drop this class, fill out and submit this form online: https://forms.office.com/Pages/ResponsePage.aspx?id=ZrGRbWrP6UWElqAmJdCCqVjMnZs6h15Nrs0pgCo_sEIUODEXTUFXS0JODhJOTIYM0NEV1kzRk9GMSQIQCN0PWcu
- You are not required to obtain an instructor signature to drop. There will be no charge for drops for the fall or spring semesters.
- For additional information regarding schedule changes, drops and withdrawals, click here.

Withdrawing from all SPC classes: If you wish to withdraw from all courses, initiate that process with the Advising Office. Schedule an appointment with an advisor by visiting <http://www.southplainscollege.edu/admission-aid/advising/spcadvisors.php> or by calling 806-716-2366.

Plagiarism and Cheating: Students are expected to do their own work on all projects, quizzes, assignments, and papers. Failure to comply with this policy will result in an F for the assignment and can result in an F for the course if circumstances warrant.

Plagiarism violations include, but are not limited to, the following:

1. Turning in a paper that has been purchased, borrowed, or downloaded from another student, an online term paper site, or a mail order term paper mill;
2. Cutting and pasting together information from books, articles, other papers, or online sites without providing proper documentation;
3. Using direct quotations (three or more words) from a source without showing them to be direct quotations and citing them; or
4. Missing in-text citations.

Cheating violations include, but are not limited to, the following:

1. Obtaining an examination by stealing or collusion;
2. Discovering the content of an examination before it is given;
3. Using an unauthorized source of information (notes, textbook, text messaging, internet) during an examination, quiz, or homework assignment;
4. Entering an office or building to obtain unfair advantage;
5. Taking an examination for another;
6. Altering grade records;
7. Copying another's work during an examination or on a homework assignment;
8. Rewriting another student's work in Peer Editing so that the writing is no longer the original student's;
9. Taking pictures of a test, test answers, or someone else's paper.

Basic Needs Assistance: Students who face challenges securing their food and believe this may affect their performance in the course are urged to contact the SPC Food Pantry in Student Activities Office for support.

Student Code of Conduct Policy: Any successful learning experience requires mutual respect on the part of the student and the instructor. Neither instructor nor student should be subject to others' behavior that is rude, disruptive, intimidating, aggressive, or demeaning. Student conduct that disrupts the learning process or is deemed disrespectful or threatening shall not be tolerated and may lead to disciplinary action and/or removal from class.

4.1.1.1. Diversity Statement

In this class, the teacher will establish and support an environment that values and nurtures individual and group difference and encourages engagement and interaction. Understanding and respecting multiple experiences and perspectives will serve to challenge and stimulate all of us to learn about others, about the larger world and about ourselves. By promoting diversity and intellectual exchange, we will not only mirror society as it is, but also model society as it should and can be.

4.1.1.2. Disabilities Statement

Students with disabilities, including but not limited to physical, psychiatric, or learning disabilities, who wish to request accommodations in this class should notify the Disability Services Office early in the semester so that the appropriate arrangements may be made. In accordance with federal law, a student requesting accommodations must provide acceptable documentation of his/her disability to the Disability Services Office. For more information, call or visit the Disability Services Office at Levelland (Student Health & Wellness Office) 806-716-2577, Lubbock Centers (located at the Lubbock Downtown Center) 806-716-4675, or Plainview Center (Main Office) 806-716-4302 or 806-296-9611.

4.1.1.3 Non-Discrimination Statement

South Plains College does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, national origin, sex, disability or age in its programs and activities. The following person has been designated to handle inquiries regarding the non-discrimination policies: Vice President for Student Affairs, South Plains College, 1401 College Avenue, Box 5, Levelland, TX 79336. Phone number 806-716-2360.

4.1.1.4 Title IX Pregnancy Accommodations Statement

If you are pregnant, or have given birth within six months, Under Title IX you have a right to reasonable accommodations to help continue your education. To activate accommodations you must submit a Title IX pregnancy accommodations request, along with specific medical documentation, to the Health and Wellness Center. Once approved, notification will be sent to the student and instructors. It is the student's responsibility to work with the instructor to arrange accommodations. Contact the Health and Wellness Center at 806-716-2529 or email dburleson@southplainscollege.edu for assistance.

4.1.1.5 OPTIONAL STATEMENT - Campus Concealed Carry Statement

Texas Senate Bill - 11 (Government Code 411.2031, et al.) authorizes the carrying of a concealed handgun in South Plains College buildings only by persons who have been issued and are in possession of a Texas License to Carry a Handgun. Qualified law enforcement officers or those who are otherwise authorized to carry a concealed handgun in the State of Texas are also permitted to do so. Pursuant to Penal Code (PC) 46.035 and South Plains College policy, license holders may not carry a concealed handgun in restricted locations. For a list of locations and Frequently Asked Questions, please refer to the Campus Carry page at: <http://www.southplainscollege.edu/campuscarry.php>

Pursuant to PC 46.035, the open carrying of handguns is prohibited on all South Plains College campuses. Report violations to the College Police Department at 806-716-2396 or 9-1-1.

TSIA Writing and Essay Test:

1. You may sign up to take the writing and/or essay section of the TSIA test any time it is offered during the semester if you feel you are ready.
2. If you have taken the TSIA Writing Test at least once, then you may retake the essay portion alone or the multiple-choice part by itself.

3. If you attend class each day and you pass the writing section of the TSIA test during the first month of the semester, then show your scores to me, and you will then receive the final grade of A, B, or C. You do not need to drop the course.

Visit the South Plains College Testing Center website to find out dates when the TSIA test is offered and to register online: <http://www.registerblast.com/levelland/Exam/Index?Group=1409>

Note: The instructor reserves the right to modify the course syllabus and policies, as well as notify students of any changes, at any point during the semester.
