Communication

The best way to contact me is via email at kejackson@southplainscollege.edu. During office hours, you may also call me in the office. I will respond to emails as quickly as possible during regular business hours (M-F, 8-5). In the evenings and on the weekends, please allow up to 48 hours for a response. As I make every effort to be current and prompt with my email, I ask that you do the same. You should check your official SPC email at least once per day. I will send all course communications and important messages through SPC email. To protect your privacy as a student, I ask that all emails originate from your official SPC email address. I cannot guarantee that emails from a third-party account (Gmail, Yahoo, Hotmail, etc.) will be read or responded to. You can find instructions to access your SPC email account below.

In all correspondence with me (and I recommend with all your instructors), you should communicate at the level of a college student. E-mails should include your course number, a subject line, salutation, and closing. E-mails with attachments should also follow these guidelines. You should write in complete sentences. This is a habit that will serve you well in college—it is best to start practicing now.

SPC Student Email Account: If you haven't already, you must go ahead and activate your SPC student email account.

- Your SPC Email address is: yourSPCusername@southplainscollege.edu
- Your student email password is the same as your Blackboard password. If you need help, call the SPC Help Desk at 806-716-2600.
- To access your SPC email account, log in to MySPC and click the Unread Messages: South Plains College O365 link at the bottom of the page.
- You can also set up access to your SPC email account through mobile phone mail apps, such as default smartphone Mail app or the Outlook app.
- Check with the SPC Help Desk for assistance: 806-716-2600.

Attendance

This is an online, asynchronous course. In order to be successful, your “attendance” is measured in course participation, including regularly accessing the course—no more than 48 hours should go by without logging in to Blackboard. There is no face-to-face component for the course. Be aware that you may be dropped for extended periods (1 week or more) of failure to log in to Blackboard or complete coursework. You will be notified via email when you are under participation warning. If you choose to cease participation in the course, it is your responsibility to drop yourself—do not rely on an administrative removal.

General Guidelines for Major Assignments

All major papers should meet the guidelines of the assignment prompt and be properly formatted in MLA 9th edition. You are responsible for understanding and following MLA format and asking questions when needed. Here's a quick overview: <https://www.scribbr.com/mla/formatting/> Final drafts should be double-spaced, and written in a 12-pt, readable font. The title of your essay should be centered; the body of your essay should be left-aligned. Margins should be 1" on all sides. Points will be deducted for final drafts that do not meet basic formatting standards for a college essay.

All major assignments should be submitted as Microsoft Word files (.doc or .docx). I cannot accept .gdoc, .pages, .odt, .rtf, or .txt files. I will not accept assignments written in the "Submission Text" or "Comments" portion of the submission link. Incorrectly submitted files are counted late until the appropriate file type is uploaded. This is a firm guideline. I cannot stress this enough—do not, for any reason whatsoever, assume that I will accept anything that does not end in .doc or .docx. Any submission that is blank or corrupt is considered late until properly submitted. Make sure you receive confirmation and a readable preview through Blackboard after submission.

Late Assignment Policy for Major Assignments:

All deadlines are at 11:59 p.m. If you submit after the deadline without a prior authorization for an extension, 20% is automatically deducted from your grade each day until submission. In the event of technical difficulties that prevent you from online submission, email me ASAP (yes, even at 11:58 p.m.) to let me know and attach the assignment. This will ensure your assignment is counted on-time. I will not, however, grade emailed assignments. You're expected to upload the final draft appropriately after technical issues are resolved. *Note that this policy only applies to major assignments. Late work is not accepted for any reason on quizzes, activities, exams, or discussions. All major writing assignments must be completed in order to pass the course.

Grading Procedure:

Essay grades are returned within two weeks; on average, you can expect them within ten days. I will provide feedback via Blackboard. You are responsible for reading and understanding all grading feedback. You are welcome to ask questions about your grading feedback; however, I ask that you wait at least 24 hours after an assignment has been returned to do so.

Essay Assessment Guidelines:

Essays may earn grades ranging from A to F based on the instructor's grading scale. Depending on the assignment, certain criteria may be weighted more than others, and the instructor's assignment may establish additional, more specific criteria. The quality of each of the criteria determines the letter grade. Essays submitted with less than half the required word count earn a zero by default.

Peer and Process Score

For each major writing assignment, you will follow the writing process which entails several steps, including but not limited to prewriting, outlining, drafting, peer reviewing, and revising & editing. You will receive a grade for your engagement with each of these steps. This portion of your course average is designed to promote not only good essays, but good practices for your future writing at the college level. Process grades are not a matter of quality, but a matter of effort. If you submit all the required drafting activities in a completed fashion on-time, you will earn a high grade for each of these scores. If you submit incomplete or late elements of your process credit, your score will fall substantially. If you do not participate in these activities or submit drafting elements that are less than 50% complete, you will earn a zero for each instance.

Peer & process scores are the most heavily weighted element of your course average. It does not matter if your talent as a writer is at the unicorn-level of impressive. If you do not participate in these activities, your average will be affected. Just to make it clear how important Peer & Process scores are:

If you earn a 75% on every paper and assignment this semester...

- 90%+ on your P&P score would result in a B overall.
- 75% on your P&P score would result in a C-/D+ overall.
- 50% on your P&P score would be a D- overall.
- 0% on your P&P would be an F overall.

Grammar Quizzes

You will take four quizzes over the semester to test your learning on grammar and sentence skills. These may take place on Blackboard during class or as timed assessments outside of class. Quizzes will be timed and limited to a single attempt. No make-up quizzes will be given. There are no exceptions.

Connect

We will use McGraw-Hill Connect, an online assessment tool, to conduct a portion of your work. This access code is included with your tuition—you do not need to purchase anything else to use Connect. I will provide instructions for registering Connect during the first week of class. Each week of coursework will have one Connect assessment due over the textbook material for the week. Refer to the course calendar for deadlines. I will not reopen a Connect assignment for any reason after the due date passes—there are no exceptions.

Final Self Reflection

The final exam for this course is your Final Self Reflection. Instructions will be provided through Blackboard. Final Self Reflections are due during the final exam period.

Blackboard

We will also use Blackboard in this course. You may access the Blackboard login page at southplainscollege.blackboard.com. Do not—under any circumstances—give your username and/or password to anyone else or allow anyone else to log in to your Blackboard account. Doing so will be viewed as academic dishonesty and will be treated as such.

If you need technical support for Blackboard, please contact the Instructional Technology Department at blackboard@southplainscollege.edu. Include your name, student ID, the name of the course you're taking, a description of the problem you are having. Like all other areas of this course, there are no exceptions to the late work policy, for any reason, including technical difficulties.

COVID Statement

The following statement should be included in all course syllabi for face-to-face and hybrid instruction options:

If you are experiencing any of the following symptoms, please do not attend class and either seek medical attention or test for COVID-19.

- Cough, shortness of breath, difficulty breathing
- Fever or chills
- Muscles or body aches
- Vomiting or diarrhea
- New loss of taste and smell

Please also notify DeEtte Edens, BSN, RN, Associate Director of Health & Wellness, at dedens@southplainscollege.edu or 806-716-2376. Proof of a positive test is required. A home test is sufficient but students must submit a photo of the positive result. The date of test must be written on the test result and an ID included in the photo. If tested elsewhere (clinic, pharmacy, etc.), please submit a copy of the doctor's note or email notification. Results may be emailed to DeEtte Edens, BSN, RN at dedens@southplainscollege.edu.

A student is clear to return to class without further assessment from DeEtte Edens, BSN, RN if they have completed the 5-day isolation period, symptoms have improved, and they are without fever for 24 hours without the use of fever-reducing medication.

Students must communicate with DeEtte Edens, BSN, RN prior to their return date if still symptomatic at the end of the 5-day isolation.

Student Code of Conduct

Any successful learning experience requires mutual respect on the part of the student and the instructor. Neither instructor nor student should be subject to others' behavior that is rude, disruptive, intimidating, aggressive, or demeaning. Student conduct which disrupts the learning process or is deemed disrespectful or threatening shall not be tolerated and may lead to disciplinary action and/or removal from class. Extra credit is available for students who carefully and thoroughly read the syllabus. In order to receive these extra points, email me a photo or link to a photo of your favorite animal and a fun fact about them. These points are for students who are still reading this document carefully at this point—do not disclose this opportunity to other students. They must find it on their own for points.

Screens and Technology

During class, we will be speaking to each other the majority of the time. It's rude to stare at your phone while someone is speaking to you. Be courteous and polite adults with your phone and screen usage. If you have an emergency, you may step outside to use your device. If you are using technology for something unrelated to the course, it will affect your daily work grade and could potentially result in being marked "absent" for that class period.

Academic Integrity and Plagiarism

It is the aim of the faculty at South Plains College to foster a spirit of complete honesty and a high standard of integrity. The attempt of any student to present as his or her own any work which he or she has not honestly performed is regarded by the faculty and administration as a most serious offense.

Plagiarism violations include, but are not limited to, the following:

1. Turning in a paper that has been purchased, borrowed, or downloaded from another student, an online term paper site, or a mail order term paper mill;
2. Cutting and pasting together information from books, articles, other papers, or online sites without providing proper documentation;
3. Using direct quotations (three or more words) from a source without showing them to be direct quotations and citing them; or
4. Missing in-text citations.

Cheating violations include, but are not limited to, the following:

1. Obtaining an examination by stealing or collusion;
2. Discovering the content of an examination before it is given;
3. Using an unauthorized source of information (notes, textbook, text messaging, internet) during an examination, quiz, or homework assignment;
4. Entering an office or building to obtain unfair advantage;
5. Taking an examination for another;
6. Altering grade records;
7. Copying another's work during an examination or on a homework assignment;
8. Rewriting another student's work in Peer Editing so that the writing is no longer the original student's;
9. Taking pictures of a test, test answers, or someone else's paper.

Do not attempt to submit an assignment for this course that you also submitted to another course without my express approval.

Do not, under any circumstances, turn in another student's work as your own. Do not, under any circumstances, give your work to anyone else to turn in as their own. Both situations are representative of academic dishonesty and will be treated as such.

There is zero tolerance for academic dishonesty in this course. I cannot stress this enough—do not under any circumstances use words you didn't write in an essay without proper documentation. If you're not sure about proper documentation, you must reach out via email or office hours to ensure academic integrity. Plagiarism will automatically result in an F for the assignment and can, in many cases, result in getting dropped from the course with an F.
