Course Description:

This course is a continuation of ENGL 1301 and an intensive study of and practice in the strategies and techniques for developing researched-based expository and persuasive texts, along with being an introduction to literature. The course emphasizes effective and ethical rhetorical inquiry, including primary and secondary research methods; critical reading of a sampling of literary, verbal, visual, and multimedia texts; systematic evaluation, synthesis, and documentation of information sources; and critical thinking about evidence and conclusions.

Course Purpose:

English 1302 has a two-fold purpose: it encourages critical writing by introducing the students to research and writing from sources, and it introduces the students to the study of literature, which may include short stories, drama, and poetry.

Textbooks and Other Materials:

Kay McClellan: English 1302: Workbook*

a flashdrive

This course partially satisfies a Core Curriculum Requirement:

Core Curriculum Objectives addressed:

Communications skills—to include effective written, oral and visual communication

Critical thinking skills—to include creative thinking, innovation, inquiry, and analysis, evaluation and synthesis of information

Teamwork—to include the ability to consider different points of view and to work effectively with others to support a shared purpose or goal

Personal Responsibility—to include the ability to connect choices, actions, and consequences to ethical decision-making.

Student Learning Outcomes: Upon successful completion of this course, students will:

1. Demonstrate knowledge of individual and collaborative research processes.
2. Develop ideas and synthesize primary and secondary sources within focused academic arguments, including one or more research-based essays.
3. Analyze, interpret, and evaluate a variety of texts for the ethical and logical uses of evidence.
4. Apply critical thinking to the study of literature and write essays which demonstrate that critical thinking.
5. Use edited American English to write in a style that clearly communicates meaning, builds credibility, and inspires belief or action.
6. Apply the conventions of style manuals for specific academic disciplines (e.g., APA, CMS, MLA, etc.)
7. Read and view videos of works of literature; analyze the use of literary devices (plot, point of view, theme, characterization, setting, symbolism, tone, etc.); participate in class discussions of the readings; and be tested over their understanding of the readings and lectures through quizzes, examinations, and/or written assignments.

Student Learning Outcomes Assessment:

A pre- and post-test and/or a writing assignment rubric will be used to determine the extent of improvement that the students have gained during the semester.

Course Evaluation:

Students' work will be evaluated by means of A, B, C, D, or F: Superior, Good, Average, Poor, or Unacceptable. Numerical grades are assigned for convenience in averaging grades only. All assignments must be completed and turned in on the date due before students are eligible to pass the class. Late work may be dropped one letter grade.

Essay/Paper Assessment Guidelines:

- *The "A" essay should be correctly formatted in MLA style in Courier New #12 with only a few spelling, wrong word, and minor grammatical or punctuation errors. It should be on an appropriate topic and have a good title and transitions. The introduction should have a specific thesis as the first or last sentence. The conclusion should have a restated thesis as the first sentence, sum up, draw conclusions, and not contain new material (all relevant material should be presented in the body paragraphs). Each body paragraph should be well supported and have a topic sentence as its first sentence that specifically corresponds back to the thesis by using the appropriate supporting point from the thesis. There should be no major grammatical errors. The essay should be thoughtful, parallel, focused, and developed, with each paragraph having a minimum of three sentences.
- *The "B" essay contains all of the above with one or two types of major grammatical errors.
- *The "C" essay has a thesis, introduction, and conclusion, but lacks support and/or has three to four types of major grammatical errors.
- *The "D" essay contains one or more of the following: lacks a strong thesis, organization, or focus (paper doesn't follow thesis) or has formatting errors or multiple spelling and/or grammatical errors.
- *The "F" essay doesn't meet the minimum requirements. Some examples of "F" essays are those that 1) are written on an unapproved or inappropriate topic; 2) do not meet the minimum word count; 3) are not written in the correct format; 4) have fewer than four paragraphs; 5) are unreadable; or 6) are offensive/inflammatory (like saying those who don't agree with the writer are morons, etc.).

Grading Policy:

- 20%--Short Story Test
- 10%--Daily Quizzes
- 30%--Literary Papers
- 10%--Research Paper Deadlines: each deadline is worth 14 points; a late deadline is worth 7 points
- 30%--Research Paper; the Final is a Revision of the Research Paper
- 100%--Total

Two Ways To Be Exempt From the Final: 1. having 1 or 0 absences; or
2. having an A average.

Workshop Style

This class will be taught in Workshop Style so that the students can write in a more casual atmosphere and have access to help from the instructor and other students. Students will have some latitude with class attendance because of the writing's being self-paced and because of the Research Paper Deadlines. Because of this, in order to assure that students learn what they should and don't fail the course from procrastination, there are 3 hard deadlines that must be made in order not to be dropped from the class.

3 Deadlines That Must Be Made to Avoid Being Dropped from the Class:

1. Anyone who hasn't turned in the original Literary Paper by the class period before the class does the Literary Paper Revision will be dropped from the class.
2. Anyone who doesn't make the first Research Paper Deadline will be dropped from the class (it counts for 4 absences).
3. Anyone who has not submitted all the deadlines by the Rough Draft in Final Draft Form Deadline that's checked by me will be dropped from the class.

2 Other Ways to Be Dropped from the Class:

1. Anyone who has 5 unexcused absences will be dropped from the class.
2. Anyone who plagiarizes or cheats will be dropped from the class.

Research Paper Deadlines:

- *All deadlines must be in Courier New #12, in MLA form, and turned in to me in person.
- All deadlines must have been turned in before I'll accept your Research Paper.

Missed Quizzes:

- Reading quizzes can't be made up;
- Video quizzes can be made up if the student passes the quiz; passing a video quiz will give the student a quiz grade and make up for an absence.

Missed Tests: a missed test needs to be made up within a week of the student's return to class.

Late Work:

No late work will be accepted after the last day of regular class.

The Literary Paper or the Revision will be accepted on the due date or on the following class day without penalty; after that, the paper be dropped a letter grade for each day (Mon.-Fri.) it's late, unless the student has documentation for illness or a hospital stay or has made previous arrangements with me.

The Research Paper will be accepted on its due date or on the day of the following class period with no penalty; no late Research Papers will be accepted, unless prior arrangements have been made with me.

Student Responsibilities: Students are expected to

1. Be on time and regularly attend class.
2. Be responsible for having an appropriate attitude and using appropriate language in academic environments; not use condescending, inflammatory, threatening, or profane rhetoric, whether verbally or in written form, in academic environments.
3. Have respectful behavior toward instructor and classmates in order to contribute to the atmosphere necessary for learning.
4. Be responsible for courteous actions to others, especially by putting away cell phones and other distractions while in class.
5. Be responsible for writing down all grades and applying them to the grading scale used for the class, which is shown in the course's policy statement/syllabus.
6. Submit all assignments in accordance with due dates, formats, and requirements.
7. Avoid all forms of cheating and plagiarism on all assignments, including improper collaboration.
8. Ask questions when something is unclear.

SPC Attendance Policy: according to the "Class Attendance" policies stated below in the SPC General Catalog: Students are expected to attend all classes in order to be successful in a course. The student may be administratively withdrawn from the course when absences become excessive as defined in the course syllabus.

When an unavoidable reason for class absence arises, such as illness, an official trip authorized by the college or an official activity, the instructor may permit the student to make up work missed. It is the student's responsibility to complete work missed within a reasonable period of time as determined by the instructor.

Students who enroll in a course but have "Never Attended" by the official census date, as reported by the faculty member, will be administratively dropped by the Office of Admissions and Records. A student who does not meet the attendance requirements of a class as stated in the course syllabus and does not officially withdraw from that course by the official census date of the semester, may be administratively withdrawn from that course and receive a grade of "X" or "F" as determined by the instructor. ... It is the student's responsibility to be aware of [the Instructor's attendance] policy.

My Attendance Policy:

Students who miss half the period will be counted absent. Students with more than four absences don't meet the minimum standards of the class and will be dropped. Students who are borderline (59, 69, 79, 89) at the end of the semester will be moved up a letter grade if they have 1 or 0 absences. The final is optional for students with an A average or 1 or 0 absences. Students who are 5 or more minutes late will be counted absent each time after the second time. The class will be working from the Workbook each day, so students who habitually don't bring their Workbook to class will be counted absent, starting with the third time.

My Policies Regarding Covid (Including Attendance):

*Please practice good hygiene when you're in SPC buildings, particularly our classroom.

*If you are quarantined and/or catch Covid:

1. please stay home until you're safe to be around others;
2. please email me about the situation: kmcclellan@southplainscollege.edu
3. please contact DeEtte Edens: 806-716-2376 or dedens@southplainscollege.edu

*she's the one who'll send me (and all your other professors) documentation so that your absences can be excused

*If you have questions, either email me kmcclellan@southplainscollege.edu or call me: 806-716-2437, and I'll be happy to try to answer them.

*For those who are quarantined for an extended period of time (more than a week of class), please email your assignments to me as attachments in Word; I don't accept documents sent in Google Docs or Blackboard.

*You won't be penalized for absences as long as you've submitted the documentation; however, you'll need to turn in all assignments in a responsible, timely manner and keep up with the rest of the class. Every situation is different, and I'll do my best to help you through this.

Ethics: Plagiarism and Cheating:

*Complete honesty is required in all course work. Everyone is required to do his or her own work; copying from another person or paper, having someone else write a paper, or using artificial intelligence (ChatGPT or other AI apps or programs) will cause the student to fail the paper and the course, as it is intellectual dishonesty.

*All drafts of papers should be saved separately to the student's folder on the hard drive of the student's computer.

Plagiarism, collusion, or cheating of any kind will result in an F in the course.

During the semester, if there appears to be a major discrepancy in a student's writing between the student's essays that are submitted for grades and the student's in-class writing, the student will be required to write an additional in-class essay. I'll take into account that it is an in-class paper, and regardless of the student's course average, if the student's writing doesn't substantially match what the student has been turning in throughout the course, then I reserve the right to assign a different final grade for the course, or the student may fail the course altogether because of not doing his/her own work.

SPC English Department Plagiarism and Cheating Policy:

*Students are expected to do their own work on all projects, quizzes, assignments, and papers. A failure to comply with this policy may result in an F for the assignment and/or being dropped from the course with an F if circumstances warrant.

Plagiarism violations include, but are not limited to, the following:

1. Using Artificial Intelligence (AI) websites or apps to generate all or part of a paper or other assignment;
2. Turning in a paper that has been purchased, borrowed, or downloaded from another writer or from an online site;
3. Cutting and pasting together information from books, articles, other papers, or online sites without providing proper documentation;
4. Using direct quotations (three or more words) from a source without showing them to be direct quotations and citing them; or
5. Missing in-text citations.

Cheating violations include, but are not limited to, the following:

1. Obtaining an examination by stealing or collusion;
2. Discovering the content of an examination before it is given;
3. Using an unauthorized source of information (notes, textbook, texting, internet, Quizlet, etc.) during an examination, quiz, or homework assignment;
4. Entering an office or building to obtain unfair advantage;
5. Taking an examination for another;
6. Altering grade records;
7. Copying another's work during an examination or on a homework assignment;
8. Rewriting another student's work in Peer Editing so that the writing is no longer the original student's;
9. Taking pictures of a test, test answers, or someone else's paper.

Student Code of Conduct Policy:

Any successful learning experience requires mutual respect on the part of the student and the instructor. Neither instructor nor student should be subject to others' behavior that is rude, disruptive, intimidating, aggressive, or demeaning. Student conduct that disrupts the learning process or is deemed disrespectful or threatening shall not be tolerated and may lead to disciplinary action and/or removal from class.

Violating a class rule at any time can result in a student's being expelled from class with an F.

Students will be dropped with an F if they:

- *Because you'll be doing Revisions of papers in this class, save a copy of your papers on the hard drive of the computer you use in CM 123 in a folder in "My Documents." Also, save a copy of your papers in at least one other place as well; you can email a copy to yourself and/or save a copy on your flashdrive. Be leery of only saving papers to the SPC Domain because papers are occasionally lost in a black hole there.

Classroom Etiquette:

- *You need to stay on task (no talking, texting, surfing the net, etc. while class is in session).
- *You shouldn't make inappropriate remarks or use profanity.
- You shouldn't make noise with electronic gadgets. If you're in a true emergency situation, take your call/text in the hall, take care of your business, and don't disturb the class when you come back.
