Student Learning Outcomes Assessment: a pre- and post-test or writing assignment rubric may be used to determine the extent of improvement that the students have gained during the semester.

Course Evaluation:

Students' work will be evaluated by means of A, B, C, D, or F: Superior, Good, Average, Poor, or Unacceptable. Numerical grades are assigned for convenience in averaging grades only. All assignments must be completed and turned in on the date due before students are eligible to pass the class. Late work may be dropped one letter grade. Students who have not turned in all the assigned work by the final drop day for instructors will be dropped from the course.

Essay/Paper Assessment Guidelines:

- The "A" essay should be correctly formatted in MLA style in Courier New #12 with only a few spelling, wrong word, and minor grammatical or punctuation errors. It should be on an appropriate topic and have a good title and transitions. The introduction should have a specific thesis as the first or last sentence. The conclusion should have a restated thesis as the first sentence, sum up, draw conclusions, and not contain new material (all relevant material should be presented in the body paragraphs). Each body paragraph should be well supported and have a topic sentence as its first sentence that specifically corresponds back to the thesis by using the appropriate supporting point from the thesis. There should be no major grammatical errors. The essay should be thoughtful, parallel, focused, and developed, with each paragraph having a minimum of three sentences.
- The "B" essay contains all of the above with one or two types of major grammatical errors.
- The "C" essay has a thesis, introduction, and conclusion, but lacks support and/or has three to four types of major grammatical errors.
- The "D" essay contains one or more of the following: lacks a strong thesis, organization, or focus (paper doesn't follow thesis) or has formatting errors or multiple spelling and/or grammatical errors.
- The "F" essay doesn't meet the minimum requirements. Some examples of "F" essays are those that 1) are written on an unapproved or inappropriate topic; 2) do not meet the minimum word count; 3) are not written in the correct format; 4) have fewer than four paragraphs; 5) are unreadable; or 6) are offensive/inflammatory (like saying those who don't agree with the writer are morons, etc.).

Grading Policy: 25%--Unit Tests
25%--Daily Quizzes
25%--Assessment
25%--Literary Paper
100%--Total

Two Ways To Be Exempt From the Final: 1. have 1 or 0 absences; or
2. have an A average.

Literary Papers:

*No Literary Paper will be accepted from students who miss the Rough Draft Workshop days in class and/or do not write a significant portion of their Literary Paper in class.

Missed Quizzes: *Reading quizzes can't be made up;
*Video quizzes can be made up if the student passes the quiz; passing a video quiz will give the student a quiz grade and make up for an absence.

Missed Tests: a missed test needs to be made up with a week of the student's return to class.

Late Work:

*Take-Home Tests will be accepted on the due date or the following class period without penalty; they won't be accepted after that.
*The Literary Paper or its Revision will be accepted on the due date or the following class period without penalty; after that, the paper will be dropped a letter grade for each day (Mon.-Fri.) it's late; it won't be accepted after the last day of regular class.

Student Responsibilities: Students are expected to

1. Be on time and regularly attend class.
2. Be responsible for having an appropriate attitude and using appropriate language in academic environments; not use condescending, inflammatory, threatening, or profane rhetoric, whether verbally or in written form, in academic environments.
3. Have respectful behavior toward instructor and classmates in order to contribute to the atmosphere necessary for learning.
4. Be responsible for courteous actions to others, especially by putting away cell phones and other distractions while in class.
5. Be responsible for writing down all grades and applying them to the grading scale used for the class, which is shown in the course's policy statement/syllabus.
6. Submit all assignments in accordance with due dates, formats, and requirements.
7. Avoid all forms of cheating and plagiarism on all assignments, including improper collaboration.
8. Ask questions when something is unclear.

SPC Attendance Policy:

According to the "Class Attendance" policies stated below in the SPC General Catalog: Students are expected to attend all classes in order to be successful in a course. The student may be administratively withdrawn from the course when absences become excessive as defined in the course syllabus.

When an unavoidable reason for class absence arises, such as illness, an official trip authorized by the college or an official activity, the instructor may permit the student to make up work missed. It is the student's responsibility to complete work missed within a reasonable period of time as determined by the instructor.

Students who enroll in a course but have "Never Attended" by the official census date, as reported by the faculty member, will be administratively dropped by the Office of Admissions and Records. A student who does not meet the attendance requirements of a class as stated in the course syllabus and does not officially withdraw from that course by the official census date of the semester, may be administratively withdrawn from that course and receive a grade of "X" or "F" as determined by the instructor. ... It is the student's responsibility to be aware of [the Instructor's attendance] policy.

My Attendance Policy:

For students to learn what they should in the class, they need to be present. Students who miss 30 minutes of the class period will be counted absent. Excused absences are absences when a student is on a school trip and has provided documentation or has a documented illness or hospital stay; doctor or dental appointments are not excused. Students will lose a letter grade in the course for each unexcused absence over 4 absences. Students who are borderline (59, 69, 79, 89) at the end of the semester will be moved up a letter grade if they have 1 or 0 absences. The final is optional for students with an A average or 1 or 0 absences.

Student Code of Conduct Policy:

Any successful learning experience requires mutual respect on the part of the student and the instructor. Neither instructor nor student should be subject to others' behavior that is rude, disruptive, intimidating, aggressive, or demeaning. Student conduct that disrupts the learning process or is deemed disrespectful or threatening shall not be tolerated and may lead to disciplinary action and/or removal from class.

Ethics: Plagiarism and Cheating:

*Complete honesty is required in all course work. Everyone is required to do his or her own work; copying from another person or paper, having someone else write a paper, or using artificial intelligence (ChatGPT or other AI apps or programs) will cause the student to fail the paper and the course, as it is intellectual dishonesty.

*All drafts of papers should be saved separately to the student's folder on the hard drive of the student's computer.

Plagiarism, collusion, or cheating of any kind will result in an F in the course.

During the semester, if there appears to be a major discrepancy in a student's writing between the student's essays that are submitted for grades and the student's in-class writing, the student will be required to write an additional in-class essay. I'll take into account that it is an in-class paper, and regardless of the student's course average, if the student's writing doesn't substantially match what the student has been turning in throughout the course, then I reserve the right to assign a different final grade for the course, or the student may fail the course altogether because of not doing his/her own work.

SPC English Department Plagiarism and Cheating Policy:

*Students are expected to do their own work on all projects, quizzes, assignments, and papers. A failure to comply with this policy may result in an F for the assignment and/or being dropped from the course with an F if circumstances warrant.

Plagiarism violations include, but are not limited to, the following:

1. Using Artificial Intelligence (AI) websites or apps to generate all or part of a paper or other assignment;
2. Turning in a paper that has been purchased, borrowed, or downloaded from another writer or from an online site;
3. Cutting and pasting together information from books, articles, other papers, or online sites without providing proper documentation;
4. Using direct quotations (three or more words) from a source without showing them to be direct quotations and citing them; or
5. Missing in-text citations.

Cheating violations include, but are not limited to, the following:

1. Obtaining an examination by stealing or collusion;
2. Discovering the content of an examination before it is given;
3. Using an unauthorized source of information (notes, textbook, texting, internet, Quizlet, etc.) during an examination, quiz, or homework assignment;
4. Entering an office or building to obtain unfair advantage;
5. Taking an examination for another;
6. Altering grade records;
7. Copying another's work during an examination or on a homework assignment;
8. Rewriting another student's work in Peer Editing so that the writing is no longer the original student's;
9. Taking pictures of a test, test answers, or someone else's paper.
