GENERAL INFO.: The material will be presented in historical chronological order, with references and comparisons to other time periods. Our class will be supplemented by class discussions, readings from the text, film presentations and listening to recordings. The student is responsible for all material presented in all of the above.

Course Requirements: The following requirements are necessary in order to pass the course.

1. Completion of all assignments, discussions, and exams prior to deadlines.
2. Meaningful participation in Course Discussions.
3. Listening to all musical examples, reading all textbook chapters, and viewing all PowerPoint presentations contained in each unit.
4. Viewing all video examples contained in various units.

Learning Outcomes

1. Identify musical works and elements in a variety of styles.
2. Analyze the elements and structure of music using appropriate terminology.
3. Critically evaluate the influence of social, political, technological, and/or cultural ideas on music.
4. Articulate the significance of music as an art form within historical, cultural, and social contexts.

Student Participation and Responsibilities: Students are expected to maintain regular activity in the course by logging on and reviewing materials, submitting assignments and discussion posts, and completing exams. It is the students' responsibility to access a reliable computer and internet connection. It is also the students' responsibility to make sure that the correct assignments and exams are properly submitted. The instructor will only take into account Blackboard's verification of submission. Any problems accessing or submitting online work MUST be reported PRIOR TO that particular unit deadline for there to be any consideration made by the professor.

NOT KNOWING IS NO EXCUSE!

Messages to the instructor, both phone and email, will be answered in a timely fashion. Weekends and holidays may add to response time.

COVID

It is the policy of South Plains College for the Fall 2020 semester that as a condition of on-campus enrollment, all students are required to engage in safe behaviors to avoid the spread of COVID-19 in the

SPC community. Such behaviors specifically include the requirement that all students properly wear CDC-compliant face coverings while in SPC buildings including in classrooms, labs, hallways, and restrooms. Failure to comply with this policy may result in dismissal from the current class session. If the COVID CLASS INFORMATION refuses to leave the classroom or lab after being dismissed, the student may be referred to the Dean of Students on the Levelland campus or the Dean/Director of external centers for Student Code of Conduct Violation.
