

SYLLABUS – KINE 1116 – CARDIO KICKBOXING

Instructor's Information:

Name: Vanessa Moffett Reales

Office: KINE 109 (Levelland Campus)

Office Hours: TBA

Contact Information: 806-716-2235

vreales@southplainscollege.edu

Materials: Water, towel, small journal/spiral notebook, hand wraps/non-padded gloves (not boxing gloves), and clothing & footwear appropriate for a variety of exercises. (No jeans or khakis.) Improper attire may result in the student not being permitted to participate as movement may be hindered. Exercise mats are provided, but feel free to bring your own.

Objectives:

1. Learn different techniques of kickboxing exercises and strength and conditioning exercises.
2. Learn to modify different exercises (i.e. intensity, impact, style) to suit one's fitness abilities.
3. Discover a cardiovascular exercise regimen he/she enjoys and make it a regular part of a healthy lifestyle.

Course Evaluation: Your grade in this course will directly reflect your effort and daily class participation. Simply showing up does not guarantee an "A" in the class. A positive attitude and a willingness to participate will ensure a good grade as well as a rewarding class experience. Student Learning Outcomes listed in General Course Syllabus will be evaluated as follows:

Participation/Attendance, Attitude, & Skill Mastery (3 pts/day)	60 points
Written Assignments	30 points
Final Exam (All participation points, 0 tardies, good attitude, & A average = final exam exemption)	10 points
Total	100 points

Attendance Policy:

1. There are NO excused absences! All absences are equal. (Absence = 0 participation points)
2. 3 absences = one-letter grade penalty will be subtracted from final grade
3. 5 absences = student is subject to being dropped with an "F" in the course
4. Non-participating notation—NP—will be recorded if a student is unable to participate, but does attend class. However, 2 NPs = 1 ABSENCE. There is a LIMIT of 2 NPs per semester. NPs are for illness only. (If you have any reason that prevents you from participating for an extended period of time, you need to withdraw from the course.)
5. Be on time to class! Class begins at the exact time listed on your schedule.
6. 3 TARDIES = 1 ABSENCE. Depending on the amount of time you are late, I will determine if it will be recorded as a tardy or absence. Same rules apply when a student LEAVES CLASS EARLY.
7. In certain situations, classes may be made-up to avoid grade penalties outlined above. (See me if this occurs.)
A MAXIMUM OF 2 CLASSES MAY BE MADE UP.

General Guidelines:

- Cell phones must be turned OFF! (If your phone rings, buzzes, or flashes you will lose one letter grade!)
- No foul language
- No inappropriate clothing
- No food or drink except water (Do not eat a heavy meal or consume energy drinks before class!)
- No headphones
- No hats/caps – Tie long hair back
- No whining!

 Remember: You will get out of this class what you put into it!**

Please note: This syllabus is subject to change at the instructor's discretion at any point during the semester.

Academic Integrity:

Plagiarism and Cheating: Students are expected to do their own work on all projects, quizzes, assignments, examinations, and papers. Failure to comply with this policy will result in an F for the assignment and can result in an F for the course if circumstances warrant.

Plagiarism violations include, but are not limited to, the following:

1. Turning in a paper that has been purchased, borrowed, or downloaded from another student, an online term paper site, or a mail order term paper mill;
2. Cutting and pasting together information from books, articles, other papers, or online sites without providing proper documentation;
3. Using direct quotations (three or more words) from a source without showing them to be direct quotations and citing them; or
4. Missing in-text citations.

Cheating violations include, but are not limited to, the following:

1. Obtaining an examination by stealing or collusion;
2. Discovering the content of an examination before it is given;
3. Using an unauthorized source of information (notes, textbook, text messaging, internet, apps) during an examination, quiz, or homework assignment;
4. Entering an office or building to obtain unfair advantage;
5. Taking an examination for another;
6. Altering grade records;
7. Copying another's work during an examination or on a homework assignment;
8. Rewriting another student's work in Peer Editing so that the writing is no longer the original student's;
9. Taking pictures of a test, test answers, or someone else's paper.

Student Code of Conduct Policy: Any successful learning experience requires mutual respect on the part of the student and the instructor. Neither instructor nor student should be subject to others' behavior that is rude, disruptive, intimidating, aggressive, or demeaning. Student conduct that disrupts the learning process or is deemed disrespectful or threatening shall not be tolerated and may lead to disciplinary action and/or removal from class.

Course/Instructor Evaluation: You will be given the opportunity to evaluate this course and its instructor on a frequent basis. I will actively solicit your written feedback, be it positive or negative, throughout this semester, and I will use it to make needed changes regarding the course content, delivery, and evaluative procedures. You will also complete a more comprehensive evaluation at the time of the final examination.

Diversity Statement: In this class, the teacher will establish and support an environment that values and nurtures individual and group differences and encourages engagement and interaction. Understanding and respecting multiple experiences and perspectives will serve to challenge and stimulate all of us to learn about others, about the larger world and about ourselves. By promoting diversity and intellectual exchange, we will not only mirror society as it is, but also model society as it should and can be.

Disability Statement: Students with disabilities, including but not limited to physical, psychiatric, or learning disabilities, who wish to request accommodations in this class should notify the Disability Services Office early in the semester so that the appropriate arrangements may be made. In accordance with federal law, a student requesting accommodations must provide acceptable documentation of his/her disability to the Disability Services Office. For more information, call or visit the Disability Services Office at Levelland (Student Health & Wellness Office) 806-716-2577, Lubbock Centers (located at the Lubbock Downtown Center) 806-716-4675, or Plainview Center (Main Office) 806-716-4302 or 806-296-9611.

Nondiscrimination Policy: South Plains College does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, national origin, sex, disability or age in its programs and activities. The following person has been designated to handle inquiries regarding the non-discrimination policies: Vice President for Student Affairs, South Plains College, 1401 College Avenue, Box 5, Levelland, TX 79336. Phone number 806-716-2360.

Title IX Pregnancy Accommodations Statement: If you are pregnant, or have given birth within six months, Under Title IX you have a right to reasonable accommodations to help continue your education. To activate accommodations you must submit a Title IX pregnancy accommodations request, along with specific medical documentation, to the Director of Health and Wellness. Once approved, notification will be sent to the student and instructors. It is the student's responsibility to work with the instructor to arrange accommodations. Contact the Health and Wellness Center at 806-716-2529 or email dburleson@southplainscollege.edu for assistance.

Campus Concealed Carry: Texas Senate Bill - 11 (Government Code 411.2031, et al.) authorizes the carrying of a concealed handgun in South Plains College buildings only by persons who have been issued and are in possession of a Texas License to Carry a Handgun. Qualified law enforcement officers or those who are otherwise authorized to carry a concealed handgun in the State of Texas are also permitted to do so. Pursuant to Penal Code (PC) 46.035 and South Plains College policy, license holders may not carry a concealed handgun in restricted locations. For a list of locations and Frequently Asked Questions, please refer to the Campus Carry page at: <http://www.southplainscollege.edu/campuscarry.php> Pursuant to PC 46.035, the open carrying of handguns is prohibited on all South Plains College campuses. Report violations to the College Police Department at 806-716-2396 or 9-1-1.

SPC's Response:

South Plains College is committed to maintaining a safe and healthy learning and work environment for students, faculty and staff as the SPC Texan Community returns to campus amid the COVID-19 pandemic. To accomplish this goal, it is imperative that everyone join together to do their part. SPC has developed a Return to Campus Plan that outlines how the college will operate and the measures that will be implemented to help protect you and your loved ones. We look forward to welcoming you back to campus, as we continue to emphasize the following points:

- All students, faculty and staff should monitor their health and notify appropriate personnel and their health care provider if they experience any symptoms related to COVID-19.
- All students, faculty and staff who have symptoms of COVID-19 should contact DeEtte Edens, BSN, RN in Health Services at dedens@southplainscollege.edu or at (806) 716-2376.
- Cleaning and sanitization process will be emphasized in every area of our campus.

Take time to review the plan along with other resources found on this webpage. We want your experience at SPC to be positive and safe as we all return to campus. SPC will continue to provide the best possible educational experience.
