Drop Policy: If you do not complete the Syllabus Agreement or Syllabus Quiz by September 6th you will be dropped. In addition, if you have more than 6 unexcused absences for MW/TT classes before the drop date, you will be dropped. There are no exceptions to this policy. Besides that, it is your responsibility to drop the course.

Disruption of Classroom Environment: Your professor will not tolerate any disruption of the classroom environment. This includes any problems your facilitator encounters with you AND hateful/disrespectful remarks made in the classroom, on discussion postings, mail, or chat. I will drop you with an F for violation of this policy. If you are habitually late to class I will drop you from the class with an X. If you are using your cell or your cell "rings" in class, you will be asked to leave the class. Silence or turn off your phone during my class.

Technology: Please no cell phone, pager, iPod, etc. usage during class. Please be respectful of others and power down your cellular devices, pagers, iPods, etc. The use of cellular/mobile phones is prohibited in the classroom.

Texting is a neat method of communicating but will not be tolerated in the classroom. It is obvious when a student is texting.

If you are expecting a call or need to leave early, notify me immediately and I will make an exception for you.

Students may use a laptop computer during class but are not permitted to instant message others, check social network updates, email, etc. The usage of the laptop computers is meant for taking notes and considered a privilege, not a right, given to you by me and can be taken away at any time.

The class will have the opportunity to have their lowest quiz scores dropped if they do not earn “three strikes”. When a student is caught texting or on their phone, the class will earn a “strike”. If the class can earn less than three throughout semester, they will earn the reward.

Emailing Your Professor: I require students to send a professional email when contacting me. If you send an unprofessional email to me, I will not respond. DO NOT attempt to communicate with me through Blackboard. I only communicate through email, preferably your SPC email.

Unless there are unforeseen circumstances, you can expect me to reply to emails within 24 hours. If I do not, don't be afraid to email me again or forward your message to me.

Technology Problems: If you have an unreliable server or computer, please go to a public computer to do your work. If for some reason the professor or the Blackboard server has made a mistake, you will not be penalized.

Be aware that when something only happens to you, it is your problem not mine. I will not reopen a quiz if an issue on your side has occurred. Please always start early on assignments and finish early to avoid problems.

I will be of no help with computer problems, mechanical failures, ISP problems, etc. You can contact Blackboard and Tech Support (blackboard@southplainscollege.edu) for any

Academic English

While slang, regional idioms, and informal kinds of self-expression are appropriate in some contexts, they are out of place in academic writing.

For help, there is a link in "Helpful Hints" that describes writing for research purposes on Blackboard.

Diversity Statement

In this class, the teacher will establish and support an environment that values and nurtures individual and group differences and encourages engagement and interaction. Understanding and respecting multiple experiences and perspectives will serve to challenge and stimulate all of us to learn about others, about the larger world and about ourselves. By promoting diversity and intellectual exchange, we will not only mirror society as it is, but also model society as it should and can be.
