History 1302
Department of History

Department: Social Sciences

Discipline: History

Course Number: HISTORY 1302

Course Title: United States History II

Credit: 3 Lecture, 0 Lab

Satisfies a core curriculum requirement? Yes, American History

Prerequisites: TSI compliance in Reading

Available Formats: Conventional, INET, ITV

Campus: Levelland, Reese, Lubbock Center, Plainview

Textbook: Varies according to instructor.

Course Specific Instructions: Each instructor will attach his/her course with specific instructions.

Course Description: A survey of the social, political, economic, cultural, and intellectual history of the United States from the Civil War/Reconstruction era to the present. United States History II examines industrialization, immigration, world wars, the Great Depression, Cold War and post-Cold War eras. Themes that may be addressed in United States History II include: American culture, religion, civil and human rights, technological change, economic change, immigration and migration, urbanization and suburbanization, the expansion of the federal government, and the study of U.S. foreign policy.

Course Objectives addressed:

1. critical thinking: demonstrates creative thinking, innovation, inquiry, and analysis, evaluation, and synthesis of information.
2. communication: demonstrates effective development, interpretation and expression of ideas through written, oral and visual communication.
3. social responsibility: demonstrates intercultural competence, knowledge of civic responsibility, and the ability to engage effectively in regional, national, and global communities.
4. personal responsibility: demonstrates the ability to connect choices, actions, and consequences to ethical decision-making.

Course Purpose: To acquaint students with the diversity of American history and to promote critical thinking in interrelating the past to the present. Fundamentally, the course promotes general understanding of a body of knowledge any literate person should possess about the history of his own country.

Course Requirements: To maximize a student's potential to complete this course, he/she should attend all class meetings, complete all homework assignments and examinations in a timely manner, and complete all other projects or papers as assigned in the instructor's specific instructions.

Course Evaluation: See the instructor's course information sheet for specific items used in evaluating student performance.

Attendance Policy: Whenever absences become excessive and in the instructor's opinion, minimum course objectives cannot be met due to absences, the student will be withdrawn from the course. Each instructor will have additional information about attendance on his/her course information sheet.

Learning Outcomes

Upon successful completion of this course, students should be familiar with the evolution of the nation and its role in the world from the mid-nineteenth century to the early twenty-first century. This would include the ability to:

- Create an argument through the use of historical evidence.
- Analyze and interpret primary and secondary sources.
- Analyze the effects of historical, social, political, economic, cultural, and global forces on this period of United States history.

Course Overview: History 1302 constitutes a general survey of United States history from the end of Reconstruction through the present. Given the time constraints of a one-semester survey and the broad range of subjects available for study, we will only be able to focus on a few major topics. Some of these include: the aftermath of the Civil War and Reconstruction; westward expansion; industrialization and responses to it; the emergence of the welfare state; American internationalism; social tumults in the period after World War Two; Vietnam and its effects; the quest for civil rights and equality of citizenship; America's right turn in the 1970s-1990s; and current issues and topics that we as Americans face today. The central theme of this course, one that is related to each of the topics, is the ever-changing ideology of Republicanism: i.e., what it has meant to be an American from the perspectives of men and women of different ethnicities, classes, and regions, and how that meaning has changed over time.

We will experience the years 1877-present through visual media such as documentaries, primary sources written by people who lived and made the history of the period as well as secondary sources written by historians who have interpreted it. After reading, viewing, and discussing these materials over the course of a semester, you will be able to judge whose arguments you most closely agree with and develop interpretations and questions of your own.

Course Objectives: My goals for the course include, but are not limited to, the following:

- You will increase your knowledge of events in U.S. history and the reasons why they occurred.
- You will be introduced to the art of historical interpretation through the reading, analysis and application of primary sources.
- You will develop critical writing skills through essay writing.
- We will exchange our interpretations and ideas through class discussions.
- We will gain a deeper understanding of the importance of the relationship between past events and the historical context in which they occurred.

The Higher Education Coordinating Board of Texas has also identified the following as objectives for core classes in the Social and Behavioral Sciences.

1. To employ the appropriate methods, technologies, and data that social and behavioral scientists use to investigate the human condition.
2. To examine social institutions and processes across a range of historical periods, social structures, and cultures.

3. To use and critique alternative explanatory systems or theories.
4. To develop and communicate alternative explanations or solutions for contemporary social issues.
5. To analyze the effects of historical, social, political, economic, cultural, and global forces on the area under study.
6. To comprehend the origins and evolution of U.S. and Texas political systems, with a focus on the growth of political institutions, the constitutions of the U.S. and Texas, federalism, civil liberties, and civil and human rights.
7. To understand the evolution and current role of the U.S. in the world.
8. To differentiate and analyze historical evidence (documentary and statistical) and differing points of view.
9. To recognize and apply reasonable criteria for the acceptability of historical evidence and social research.
10. To analyze, critically assess, and develop creative solutions to public policy problems.
11. To recognize and assume one's responsibility as a citizen in a democratic society by learning to think for oneself, by engaging in public discourse, and by obtaining information through the news media and other appropriate information sources about politics and public policy.
12. To identify and understand differences and commonalities within diverse cultures.

Required Readings: History is a reading and writing intensive subject. It is imperative that you cover the assigned readings prior to class so that you can derive the full value from the lecture and to participate effectively in the discussions. There is one required text on order in the South Plains College bookstore. Additional readings may be handed out in class or made available on Blackboard.

David Emory Shi, America: A Narrative History, Vol. II, Brief 11th Ed., ISBN 978-0-393-66897-1

TexBook Program: This course is in the SPC TexBook program, so you do not need to purchase a textbook or access code for this course.

- What is TexBook? The required textbook/digital content for this course is available to you in Blackboard from the first day of class. The fee for the textbook/digital content is the lowest price available from the publisher and bookstore and is included in your tuition/fee payment.
- How do I access my TexBook? Your course material is in your Blackboard course from the first day of class. Access to your course material is provided either by RedShelf or other links inside your Blackboard course. RedShelf (and many publisher's) ebook features include the ability to hear the text read aloud, highlight, take notes, create flash cards, see word definitions, build study guides, print select pages, and download up to 20% of the book for offline access.

- Help with TexBook issues and support: check with your professor and/or contact <https://solve.redshelf.com/hc/en-us/requests/new>
- Opting out of TexBook: Participating in TexBook is not mandatory, and you can choose to opt-out. However; by opting-out you will lose access to the course textbook and competitive pricing, and you will need to purchase the required course material on your own. If you drop the class or opt-out before the opt-out deadline, the TexBook charge will be automatically refunded to your SPC account. The opt-out deadline for Fall and Spring is the twelfth class day. The opt-out deadline for shorter terms varies between the second and third class day.

Please consult with your professor before deciding to opt-out.*

If you still feel that you should purchase the course textbook/materials on your own, send an opt-out email to tfewell4texasbookcompany@gmail.com. Include your first name, last name, student ID number, and the course you are opting out of. Once you have been opted-out, you will receive a confirmation email. Grading:

Grades will be determined as follows:

Chapter Quizzes (11 @ 10 points each)	110
Response Papers (2 @ 20 points each)	40
Exam 1	100
Exam 2	100
Final Exam	100
Atomic Bomb Writing Assignment	100
Personal Responsibility	50
	600 total points

I will grade on the following scale:

600-540 pts (100%-90%)	=	A
539-480 pts (89.9%-80%)	=	B
479-420 pts (79.9%-70%)	=	C
419-360 pts (69.9%-60%)	=	D
359-0 pts (59.9%-0%)	=	F

I will allow students to take ONE make-up exam during the semester. The make-up exam will consist of 5 essay questions worth 20 points each. The make-up exam will be given as arranged between instructor and student. You are allowed to take ONE make-up exam during the semester. If you miss two scheduled exams, you must provide documentation of your emergency for the second missed exam.

You will receive a study guide approximately one week before each exam. The exams will consist of multiple choice questions and essay questions.

If you arrive late for an exam, you will only be allowed to work on your exam until the last student who arrived on time completes his/her exam.

Quizzes:

There will be eleven announced quizzes. All quizzes will be taken from the textbook and will be available through Blackboard. Quiz deadlines are found in the Schedule of Assignments at the end of the syllabus.

Academic Writing:

South Plains College requires all students to become proficient in "academic English," a form of English that is typically used in academic, professional, and business contexts. While slang, regional idioms, and informal kinds of self-expression are appropriate in some contexts, they are out of place in academic writing. Writing instructors and professors in courses across the campus expect all students to demonstrate proficiency in using the conventions of academic English in their written work, whether it is in-class exams or take-home essays.

Writing Assignment:

Students will be required to complete two response papers and the Atomic Bomb writing assignment this semester. I will announce details of the writing assignments in class and post instructions on Blackboard.

Papers will be uploaded as an attachment through the writing assignment submission link on Blackboard.

Late Assignment Policy:

Late work is not allowed unless there is a documented emergency or illness. The student must contact the instructor prior to the deadline about the emergency or illness in order to submit the assignment late.

Grades:

If you have a question or concern about your grades or performance in this course, you must come visit with me in person. I will not send grade information via email.

Student Privacy:

South Plains College is bound by the Texas Open Records Law and the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act of 1974. Information regarding these topics can be found in the South Plains College Catalog. As far as this class is concerned, I will NOT release or discuss your class performance, grades, averages, or attendance with anyone but you. This means that your parents, class counselors, principals, or any other interested party will not gain this information from me – if they need this sort of information they must ask you for it.

Civility/Academic Dishonesty:

Most students have a good sense of proper classroom behavior and seek to earn grades through their own efforts. Unfortunately, I occasionally encounter students who treat both myself and their peers disrespectfully, and who attempt to get through my courses through dubious means. Let me state my policy on these issues clearly:

A. Classroom Civility:

1. I expect you to show up on time and to pay attention while you are here.
2. I expect you to treat your instructor and peers with respect—and you should expect, and will receive, the same from me.
3. I expect you to stay awake in class. If you fall asleep, it is as if you are not in class and points will be deducted from your class participation grade.
4. Types of in-class behavior I will not tolerate: repeated lateness to class, carrying on conversations with your neighbors, reading your cell phone, ringing/answering cell phones, text-messaging, listening to personal stereos or any other activity I view as disruptive or disrespectful to either me or your peers.

Students who choose to act in a disruptive manner will be asked to leave, and their grades will be lowered significantly.

B. Academic Dishonesty: I have zero tolerance for cheating and plagiarism, and will deal with these circumstances in accordance with the guidelines set forth in the South Plains College Policy & Procedures Manual, Section FF. This will mean a failing grade on the exam/quiz/assignment in question at the minimum, and can entail failure of the course and/or expulsion from the college. I take this stuff seriously. So should you.

Plagiarism is included, but not limited to, copying answers from another student's exam, submitting a paper written by someone other than you, writing an exam essay outside of class, and/or essays and writing assignments copied (in whole or in part) directly from a website, book, journal, etc.

Diversity Statement

In this class, the teacher will establish and support an environment that values and nurtures individual and group differences and encourages engagement and interaction. Understanding and respecting multiple experiences and perspectives will serve to challenge and stimulate all of us to learn about others, about the larger world and about ourselves. By promoting diversity and intellectual exchange, we will not only mirror society as it is, but also model society as it should and can be.

Disabilities Statement

Students with disabilities, including but not limited to physical, psychiatric, or learning disabilities, who wish to request accommodations in this class should notify the Disability

Services Office early in the semester so that the appropriate arrangements may be made. In accordance with federal law, a student requesting accommodations must provide acceptable documentation of his/her disability to the Disability Services Office. For more information, call or visit the Disability Services Office at Levelland (Student Health & Wellness Office) 806-716-2577, Reese Center (Building 8) 806-716-4675, or Plainview Center (Main Office) 806-716-4302 or 806-296-9611.

Non-Discrimination Statement

South Plains College does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, national origin, sex, disability or age in its programs and activities. The following person has been designated to handle inquiries regarding the non-discrimination policies: Vice President for Student Affairs, South Plains College, 1401 College Avenue, Box 5, Levelland, TX 79336. Phone number 806-716-2360.

Title IX Pregnancy Accommodations Statement

If you are pregnant, or have given birth within six months, Under Title IX you have a right to reasonable accommodations to help continue your education. To activate accommodations you must submit a Title IX pregnancy accommodations request, along with specific medical documentation, to the Director of Health and Wellness. Once approved, notification will be sent to the student and instructors. It is the student's responsibility to work with the instructor to arrange accommodations. Contact Chris Straface, Director of Health and Wellness at 806-716-2362 or email cstraface@southplainscollege.edu for assistance.

COVID-19 Statement

If you are experiencing any of the following symptoms please do not attend class and either seek medical attention or get tested for COVID-19.

- Cough, shortness of breath, difficulty breathing
- Fever or chills
- Muscles or body aches
- Vomiting or diarrhea
- New loss of taste and smell

Please also notify DeEtte Edens, BSN, RN, Associate Director of Health & Wellness, at dedens@southplainscollege.edu or 806-716-2376.

Campus Concealed Carry

South Plains College permits the lawful carry of concealed handguns in accordance with Texas state law, and Texas Senate Bill 11. Individuals possessing a valid License to Carry permit, or the formerly issued Concealed Handgun License, may carry a concealed handgun at all campus locations except for the following.

- Natatorium

For a complete list of campus carry exclusions zones by event, please visit <http://www.southplainscollege.edu/campuscarry.php>

Pursuant to PC 46.035, the open carrying of handguns is prohibited on all South Plains College campuses. Report violations to the College Police Department at 806-716-2396 or 911.

Personal Responsibility:

Due to COVID-19, I will not include an attendance grade as part of your final grade in this course. There are, however, 20 points available for you to earn by coming to class prepared (i.e. wearing an appropriate mask as required by South Plains College) and communicating with the instructor in the event you are unable to make it to your designated class day. If you do not remember your mask or fail to communicate with me about missed classes, points will be deducted from your personal responsibility score.

Syllabus subject to change at instructor's discretion.
