Course Description

This course is a survey of the fundamental principles of political science, including, and more emphasis of, the American system of government and the origins and development of the Constitution of the United States. Its emphasis is placed on constitutional backgrounds and the organization and functions of the executive, legislative, and judicial segments of the national government, civil liberties and civil rights, public opinion, media, bureaucracies, and domestic and foreign policy. This course satisfies the Legislative requirements for teacher certification.

Course Requirements/Class Expectations

Late work will not be accepted unless a note from a medical doctor is presented.

Please no cell phone, pager, iPod, earbuds, headphones, etc. usage during class. This is rude to me and distracting to your classmates. Please be respectful of others and power down your cellular devices, pagers, iPods, etc. and remove your earbuds or headphones prior to the start of class.

Once the time for class arrives, the doors will close and lock and class will begin. Your admittance into the class will not be allowed once the doors are closed. Should you be late, you may attend a later or earlier class similar to the one in which you are registered. This policy will start in the third week of the semester. I advise you to not be late.

Students may not use a laptop or tablet computer during lecture unless given specific permission by the professor to do so. Also, no student is allowed to take a picture of notes unless given specific permission to do so. Students are prohibited from sending another person into class to take a picture of the notes.

While this course requires no prior knowledge of American politics, there is considerable reading related to a wide range of topics. It is essential that students complete the weekly readings before class. We cover a great deal of material so it is critical that you attend class regularly, take careful notes, keep abreast of the readings, and participate fully in class discussions. If you feel you need extra help in managing the course materials, contact me and I will help you.

Required Textbook

Bardes, B.A , Shelley, M.C., & Schmidt, S.W., (2021). American Government and Politics Today: The Essentials Boston, MA: Wadsworth Cengage Learning. (loose leaf)

MindTap will be utilized during this term.

Communication

In the event students need to get in contact with Professor Landry, please send all communications to his South Plains College email. In doing so, please put the class in which you are enrolled in the subject line so I know how to specifically help you remedy the issue. Also, please follow the guidelines put forth in the Academic English portion of the syllabus when submitting an email.

Coursework

Students will be given four (4) exams throughout the semester. The exams are aimed to evaluate student progress in the class. If discrepancies exist, notify me immediately. There are no makeups except in the case of an emergency.

Also, students will be given one (1) writing assignment. The writing assignment will be turned in through turnitin.com via Blackboard. Students will receive a written explanation on what is expected no later than one (1) week before the assignment is due. For every day late – including weekends – the paper will succumb to a five (5) point deduction on its final grade.

There will be content quizzes throughout the semester. These are conducted through MindTap, which is found through the class' Blackboard site. When performing the quizzes, South Plains College suggests using web browsers Mozilla Firefox or Google Chrome. Microsoft Edge or Safari, however, is not recommended. Finally, no makeups are available for these quizzes.

Last, but certainly not least, is class participation. Students are required to participate in class. A significant amount of class points lies in participating and if a student is absent, she/he cannot participate in class. If students are late and/or arbitrarily leave class for a significant amount of time, uses cell phone during class, etc., their participation grade will suffer. If an emergency occurs, that is a different situation and I should be notified.

Exam Day Conduct

When taking exams, students need a pencil and an eraser. Cellular devices, tablets, iPods, earbuds, headphones, pagers, etc., need to be either turned off, removed, or silenced – not on vibrate – and stowed away in a backpack, purse, bag, or any other packaging device. All backpacks, purses, bags, etc., need to be placed on the floor and in the front of the classroom and all course material need to be inside it and closed. If any student chooses to ignore this directive and unsilenced phone goes off during an exam, every student in the class will have ten (10) points automatically deducted. Also, all hats are to be removed upon taking an in – class exam. In short, do not be a jerk.

Yawning

If any student feels the need to yawn during class, it is expected to do so silently while covering his/her mouth. Failure to follow such a simplistic social norm may result in the professor responding to such action.

Grades

Grade Calculation

In calculating grades, I keep it very simple. I take the total points a student accumulated and divide that number into the total points possible and multiply by one hundred (100). The result from this basic math is your class percentage. A scale of what percentage constitutes a letter grade is below.

Rounding

Students are ingrained to think a percentage ending in “.5” will be rounded to the nearest whole number. I only round to the nearest whole number if a student has at least a “.9.” This is my practice and I have done this for numerous years. I have no intention of changing it. If you desire a better grade, you will have to earn it.

Grading Breakdown

Four Exams (Three worth 110 points; One worth 100 points) =	430
One Writing Assignment (worth 100 points) =	100
Five MindTap Quizzes (worth 25 points each) =	125
Participation (worth 75 points) =	75

Total Points = 730

At the end of the semester, I will not respond to any student who wishes to plead for a grade change. Students need to keep track of their grades throughout the semester.

Grading Scale

100 – 90%	A
89 – 80%	B
79 – 70%	C
69 – 60%	D
59% and below	F

Attendance Policy

Your attendance in class is heavily recommended but not required. Attendance will be taken throughout the semester at the discretion of the professor.

If any student accumulates excessive absences after the last day to drop classes (12/01/2022), he/she will be dropped from the course.

For further information on SPC's attendance policy, please seek the student handbook and college catalog.

Academic Integrity

It is the aim of the faculty of South Plains College to foster a spirit of complete honesty and a high standard of integrity. The attempt of any student to present as his or her own any work which he or she has not honestly performed is regarded by the faculty and administration as a most serious offense and renders the offender liable to serious consequences, possibly suspension.

Cheating: Dishonesty of any kind on examinations or on written assignments, illegal possession of examinations, the use of unauthorized notes during an examination, obtaining information during an examination from the textbook or from the examination paper of another student, assisting others to cheat, alteration of grade records, illegal entry or unauthorized presence in an office are examples of cheating.

Complete honesty is required of the student in the presentation of any and all phases of course work. This applies to quizzes of whatever length, as well as to final examinations, to daily reports and to term papers.

Plagiarism: Offering the work of another as one's own, without proper acknowledgment, is plagiarism; therefore, any student who fails to give credit for quotations or essentially identical expression of material taken from books, encyclopedias, magazines and other reference works, or from the themes, reports or other writings of fellow student, is guilty of plagiarism.

Punishment for Plagiarism

Any student who commits plagiarism and is caught in doing so will be punished on the first offense with a zero (0) for the grade. If a student commits and is caught on a second offense of plagiarism, the professor will seek the removal of the student from the course with an F for the grade, report the student to the Dean of Students, and may suggest the student's expulsion from the college.

Intellectual Property: All material on the course's Blackboard page, including quizzes, are the intellectual property of the professor and at no time may a student screenshot a question or post any exam or quiz material online. If a student does this, he/she will be warned on the first offense. If the instance repeats, the student will be disciplined accordingly. This is a form of stealing from me and it will not be tolerated.

Technology Policy

The following is Professor Landry's policy on the usage of laptop computers, iPads, earbuds, headphones, and other mobile tablets in the classroom. Professor Landry will not allow students to use them and no student may take a picture of the notes unless given special permission to do so.

It is strongly advised not to use cellular/mobile phones while in the classroom. Texting is a neat method of communicating but it is obvious when a student is texting and/or using mobile devices. Please understand you are in an educational setting and people are around you. If you would rather watch social media than come to class, that is your choice but watching social media while in class is rude to me and your classmates. It is asked of students to be respectful of me and other students while attending class.

Please remove all earbuds/headphones prior to the start of class. The class works well enough without background music.

Academic English

South Plains College requires all students to become proficient in "academic English," a form of English typically used in academic, professional, and business contexts. While slang, regional idioms, and informal kinds of self-expression are appropriate in some contexts, they are out of place in academic writing. Professors expect all students to demonstrate proficiency in using the conventions of academic English in all their written work, whether it is in-class exams, take home essays, or emails.

Diversity Statement

In this class, the teacher will establish and support an environment that values and nurtures individual and group difference and encourages engagement and interaction. Understanding and respecting multiple experiences and perspectives will serve to challenge and stimulate all of us to learn about others, about the larger world and about ourselves. By promoting diversity and intellectual exchange, we will not only mirror society as it is, but also model society as it should and can be.

Nondiscrimination Policy

South Plains College does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, national origin, sex, disability or age in its programs and activities (choices of sports team, however, are fair game – ha). The following person has been designated to handle inquiries regarding the non-discrimination policies: Vice President for Student Affairs, South Plains College, 1401 College Avenue, Box 5, Levelland, TX 79336. Phone number 806-716-2360.

Title IX Pregnancy Accommodations Statement

If you are pregnant, or have given birth within six months, Under Title IX you have a right to reasonable accommodations to help continue your education. To activate accommodations you must submit a Title IX pregnancy accommodations request, along with specific medical documentation, to the Health and Wellness Center. Once approved, notification will be sent to the student and instructors. It is the student's responsibility to work with the instructor to arrange accommodations. Contact the Health and Wellness Center at 806-716-2529 or email dburleson@southplainscollege.edu for assistance.

Students with Disabilities

Students with disabilities, including but not limited to physical, psychiatric, or learning disabilities, who wish to request accommodations in this class should notify the Disability Services Office early in the semester so that the appropriate arrangements may be made. In accordance with federal law, a student requesting accommodations must provide acceptable documentation of his/her disability to the Disability Services Office. For more information, call or visit the Disability Services Office at Levelland (Student Health & Wellness Office) 806-716-2577, Lubbock Centers (located at the Lubbock Downtown Center) 806-716-4675, or Plainview Center (Main Office) 806-716-4302 or 806-296-9611.

Campus Concealed Carry

"Constitutional Carry" Law

Governor Abbott recently signed into law the Texas Firearm Carry Act of 2021, which has been commonly referred to as the "Constitutional Carry Law." As a result, effective Sept. 1, 2021, persons 21 or older to carry a holstered handgun in public without a handgun permit or license to carry.

Affects to South Plains College

It is important to clarify, that this new law, does not remove the requirement to possess a valid Texas License to Carry to lawfully carry a concealed firearm into a South Plains College building, and it does not allow for the open carry of a firearm into an SPC building by anyone other than a Texas Peace officer in commission of duties and South Plains College Security Guards in Commission of duties.

Again, you still must possess a valid Texas License to Carry (LTC) to carry a concealed handgun into an SPC building and still cannot open carry at any time in any SPC building.

Public Places

Please be aware that business may still restrict open and concealed carry on their premises. With the signing of Constitutional Carry, they may now display 30.05 signs in addition to or instead of 30.06 and 30.07 signs. 30.05 signs notify patrons that it is a criminal trespass for any person not otherwise prohibited from entering the premises with a firearm. 30.06 signs provide notification to LTC holders that they may not enter with a concealed firearm and 30.07 signs provide notification to LTC holders that they may not enter with an openly carried firearm.

License to Carry Considerations

You may still want to maintain a current LTC or obtain a new one for various purposes. LTCs allow for the following:

- Lawful concealed carry into college buildings
- Reciprocity for carrying in other states that recognize Texas LTC.
- Training and firearm knowledge
- Additional legal protect for carrying into restricted places when leaving upon notice
- Simplification of firearm purchase

Additional Information

For additional information regarding SPC firearm policies and laws and regulations please visit: <http://www.southplainscollege.edu/campuscarry.php>

At the above webpage you can also access a calendar of restricted zones and events in which the possession of a firearm is prohibited as well as a link to information regarding LTC reciprocity between Texas and other states.

Pursuant to PC 46.035, the open carrying of handguns is prohibited on all South Plains College campuses. Report violations to the College Police Department at 806-716-2396 or 9-1-1.

Tobacco Use

Students are to follow SPC's rules and regulations on cigarette and electronic cigarette use. Also, students are not to use smokeless tobacco in class. This includes but not limited to: snuff, dip, chew, packets, etc. It is rude and distracting to do this during class and any violation will be dealt with accordingly.

Amendments

The instructor reserves the right to make changes to the syllabus at any time. Students will be notified of such change(s) with appropriate time to adapt.

COVID-19

Because of the ease with which COVID-19 can be spread in an indoor setting such as a classroom, we will be following strict classroom policies designed to reduce the risk that anyone in our class transmits or contracts COVID-19 while in the room. These guidelines are in place to keep you, your classmates, and me safe. If you ever have any questions or concerns about these policies, please do not hesitate to reach out to me.

Attending While Sick

If you or someone with whom you have close contact (e.g. family member, coworker, roommate) are experiencing ANY symptom associated with COVID-19, please do not come to class. Per the CDC, any of the following may be symptoms of COVID-19:

Fever or chills	Cough	Shortness of breath or difficulty breathing	Fatigue	Muscle or body aches	Headache
New loss of taste or smell	Sore throat	Congestion or runny nose	Nausea or vomiting	Diarrhea

If you or someone you have close contact with are experiencing any of the above symptoms, you are strongly advised to get tested for COVID-19. The Lubbock Health Department maintains a list of COVID-19 testing sites; you can access that list here:

<https://ci.lubbock.tx.us/departments/health-department/about-us/covid-19-testing-location>.

Please do not return to class until you or the person you had contact with have received a negative result on a COVID-19 test (meaning you don't have the disease).

If you test positive for COVID-19, please follow the guidance of your healthcare provider regarding when it is safe to return to class.

If someone you have close contact with tests positive for COVID-19, you will need to quarantine. Current CDC guidelines (as of this writing) are to quarantine for five days from the time of last contact with the infected person. The CDC has more information on how and when to quarantine at the following website: <https://www.cdc.gov/coronavirus/2019-ncov/if-you-are-sick/quarantine.html>

Availability of Lecture Material Outside of Class

All lectures (technology permitting) are recorded. You will have the option to watch the lectures from home. While you still need to be in class, the recorded lectures are there in case you are absent.

Quarantine Triggers

I will self-initiate quarantine under the following conditions:

- If I develop any COVID-19 symptom, I will self-quarantine until I receive a negative COVID-19 test. This will likely take at least three (3) to five (5) days.

- If I am exposed to someone who tests positive for COVID-19, I will self-quarantine for at least ten (10) days from the time I last had contact with that person.
- If I test positive for COVID-19, I will follow the advice of my doctor regarding when it is safe for me to return to class in person.
- If anyone in the class tests positive for COVID-19, I will cancel in person classes until at least ten (10) days after that student's last date of attendance.

Contingency in Case of Instructor Quarantine

If at any time I am unable to physically attend class, I will make every effort to continue broadcasting lectures at our regularly scheduled class time. I have the necessary hardware and software at home to broadcast and record lectures. If for any reason I am unable to continue live streaming lectures, I or another SPC faculty member will contact you with instructions on how the class will proceed.

Makeup of assignment(s) and exam(s)

If a student misses an assignment(s) and/or exam(s) due to COVID-19 or any other illness, a doctor's note will be required in order to makeup the assignment and/or exam. The note must cover the dates you missed, which must coincide with your missing assignment(s) and/or exam(s).

Vaccination

It highly recommended for students to get a vaccination for COVID-19. Students may get a vaccine in Hockley County at these locations: <https://www.google.com/search?client=firefox-b-1-d&q=vaccination+locations+in+hockley+county>
