Exams: There will be four exams in this course. Each exam will be worth 15% of your total grade. Each exam will be composed primarily of multiple-choice questions, but there will likely be true/false questions and fill-in-the-blank questions. You will be informed if short answer or essay questions are used in the exam. If I use short answer or essay questions then that portion of the exam will compose no more than 50 percent of the exam's grade.

Quizzes: You will complete 12 quizzes throughout the semester. Each quiz will cover the content found within the folder where the quiz is located and some information from previous weeks. Make sure that you read and/or watch all materials provided in the folder before beginning your quiz. Each quiz will be worth 2 percentage points each. Each quiz will be composed of 5 to 20 questions. The questions in the quiz will be multiple-choice, fill-in-the-blank, and, or, True/False questions. The Syllabus Quiz will also be graded but you will be permitted to re-take the syllabus quiz until you receive full points.

Discussion Posts: You will complete 5 discussion post assignments throughout this semester. Each discussion post assignment will cover a topic addressed within the weekly folder where the discussion post is located. To complete the discussion post assignment you will need to post a discussion addressing the question I post to you and the class. You will need to respond to that question in roughly 300 to 400 words (a word count function exists on the bottom left corner of Microsoft Word). However, you should write more than 400 words if you need to. It is always better to write more and fully answer the question than to write too little and leave important details out of your discussion.

You will also need to respond to at least 2 discussion posts by other students. You may respond twice to the same student or respond once to two different students. To make a response post hit the "Reply" button at the bottom of their discussion post. Each response post should be roughly 150 words, but once again write more if you need to.

Plagiarism and Cheating: Plagiarism and cheating in any form will not be tolerated in this course. South Plains College provides for a wide range of punishments for cheating including failing the assignment, quiz, exam, or course. I will be vigilant against cheating and you will at a minimum fail the assignment, quiz, or exam in which cheating or plagiarism has occurred.

A.I. Technology: All A.I. technology are prohibited in this course. Any use of A.I. technology to complete or supplement written work is cheating. I will drop you from the course with a failing grade if you use any A.I. technology in this course.

Late Work: I will allow you to complete assignments, quizzes, and exams after their due date for reduced points. Point will be progressively reduced the further away from the due date that you complete the assignment, quiz, or exam. If you know that you will be unable to complete an assignment, quiz, or exam because of illness or another reasonable circumstance then you must email me and I will allow your assignment, quiz, or exam to be graded for full points, but such accommodation shall be determined at the discretion of the instructor.

Late Work Penalty: 10 percent will be deducted from your earned grade for every day the graded item is late. Late work will not be accepted without permission from the instructor during or after Week 15 and Week 16.

Extra Credit: I do not intend to provide any extra credit opportunities in this course. If I provide extra credit it will be announced to the entire class.

Viewing Graded Material: You will be able to view your graded assignments, quizzes, and exams in "My Grades"

Attendance Policy: Since this is an online course I will not take daily attendance. However, you are expected to complete your work on time in accordance with the course calendar. Please email me if you are sick or have another valid reason for failure to complete your assignments.

Classroom Discussions: Given the nature of this course students may express political views contrary to your own and while no one is required to agree with another's political views you are required to be respectful. I encourage you to honestly express your views in this class, when it is appropriate and relevant, but you must be respectful in both your tone and delivery.

SPC Policy Regarding "Standard English": All written assignments should be presented using the conventions of Standard Written English. South Plains College requires all students to become proficient in "academic English," a form of English that is typically used in academic, professional, and business contexts. While slang, regional idioms, and formal kinds of self-expression are appropriate in some contexts, they are out of place in academic writing. Writing instructors and professors in courses across the campus expect all students to demonstrate proficiency in using the conventions of academic English in their written work, whether it is in-class exams or take-home essays.

Emails: Every email must include your name, course and section number so that I can promptly address your question or concern. I will respond to your email within 24 hours. However, I will not respond to emails sent on Saturday or Sunday until the following Monday. Emails sent after normal business hours will not receive a response until the following workday. If Monday, or any other day is a public holiday for which SPC is closed, then I will not respond to the email until the following workday.
